Thread: Profile - My Playlist

Banter. - August 22, 2019, 11:18 am

I love all the new profile updates and the new layout this is just a quick concept I had in mind.

My Playlist

I don't use social media really so I see my HF profile as a social media profile, a perfect way to tell people about me and what I do etc.

I was going to suggest this a long time ago but the old profile style wouldn't have worked with this suggestion.

Here is a quick rough example of what I'm suggesting.

Have the ability to write your playlist so your Top 10/5 Songs, obviously the Style shown above is a rough example and it could look very different if Xerotic got his hands on it!

Songs could link to YouTube or Spotify.

The right hand side of profiles could fit this in very nicely and it could be cool to visit someone's profile and see what style of music they are into etc.

Thanks for reading my suggestion leave your feedback below ?

Would be even nicer if it links back to a YouTube video or Spotify.

Yeah that what I was thinking ? I was not sure if it was possible tho ?
could be a very cool thing for profiles

Or Just include a profile viewable Box for anything. No need to limit it to only people Who want to share Music (A small percentage of the forum).

Make it a general place for all information that you can see on someones profile.

I Mean that would be the purpose of the Bio Box surely ? you can share what ever you want there ?

So this would be just a dedicated section for a playlist/Top10/5.

I feel like a lot of people will not comment here about it but I could almost bet that a lot of people would use it on there profiles if it was available.

I know ? It was Sarcasm.

I don't think there's enough people to even make this worth the time adding.

The Bio box is designed to be the place for that sort of information, there's almost 0 real benefit from creating a separate place for Music taste.

Maybe if this was a Forum that had more of a Music scene but Knowing that information or having it displayed doesn't really fit the theme of this forum, At least to me... I might be very alone in thinking this though.

It's a cool suggestion, I just don't think it 'fits'

You can put things like this in your BioBox and even do multiple YT tags for videos.

Fair point buddy!

Closing thread now.

I do like the top border on the box you created though. I think the rest of the profile cards would look a little slicker with it.
