Honeybun - August 24, 2019, 3:32 pm

I'm giving away $20.00 pp. I have a verified account, funds are legit, blah blah.

I'm doing this to see what kind of response this even gets. I may start doing them weekly or bi-weekly.

To be considered, you MUST comment in the thread below letting me know you've entered.

I'm going to post a google forms link below. There are three textboxes -Username

Your guess

You are guessing a number between 1-750. The number has been generated using a random number generator.

Extending contest to 8/25 at midnight

If noone guesses the number, I'll pick the closest entry. If multiple users guess the number, they split the winnings evenly.

One entry per user. If less than twenty users enter contest will be extended. If a considerable amount of entries are received, I reserve the right to end the contest at any time.

If you'd like, please drop a popularity rating.
