Thankfully I don't believe I have ever used this service.

Regulus - August 26, 2019, 2:34 pm

Jesus Christ that's a large breach.

Thomas Anderson - August 26, 2019, 2:34 pm

Thanks for warning. I think I used this service but I didn't receive an email.

5oak - August 26, 2019, 10:47 pm

Hostinger is absolute shit of a webhost, it's literally the same company as SPAM which is known for storing plaintext passwords lmao

Shaggy - August 26, 2019, 10:58 pm

And then there's me who bought their service 1 week ago....

Big RIP for you...

Good bye to my personal information that was stolen since I am hosting most of my websites and VPS at Hostinger. Luckily my password has been hashed unless they get the key in hashing the password (not good). ?

Ah man that is fucking beginner security 101.

TYourusername - August 28, 2019, 3:01 pm

is the breach somewhere where we can download it?

weleakinfo.com maybe?

weleakinfo doesn't offer downloading BDs anyways

Liema - August 30, 2019, 8:53 am

This makes me sad now. I had a account there(old account created years ago). Time to change all my passwords.

Zher0 - August 30, 2019, 9:41 am

RIP, i had some websites hosted there lol..

Anything can be hacked

Ravensshadow - September 14, 2019, 7:49 pm

That sucks well good thing ive never used this service

haksxsx - September 15, 2019, 5:02 am

it's all about how good you are securing yourself, it was bound to happen one day since SPAM DB was already leaked sometimes ago and it's the same company.

it's best that you secure yourself by at least changing the password constantly and strengthening them.

tiem0le - September 19, 2019, 2:16 am

This is why you always try and purchase via cryptocurrency and fake information when the option is available. OPSEC really isn't that hard lmao.

Meterpreter - September 19, 2019, 2:31 am

I used hostinger. Can't crack my password hash though, not with today's technology.

gloccforty - October 4, 2019, 3:32 pm

Never used it. Glad I didnt
