4158996621556 - August 26, 2019, 4:13 pm

So I'd have reported this in a simple PM

but since it's about a certain desperate individual, i'm posting this out here so that everyone can have a laugh

TL;DR this user here, called "int" <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3861180> was desperate enough to reply 499 times on a SINGULAR thread, for a $1000 giveaway.

now, $1000 is life-changing money for some people but knowing how many "vouch copies" int has gotten in the past, and his positive vouches, I'd say that even if 1 ebook was successful, he'd surely be making some decent money monthly knowing so many "free money" methods.

Does this desperatoin prove that ebooks make no money??? idk, you'll be the judge.

BUT HERE IS WHAT I'M MAKING THE THREAD FOR

As soon as int got post banned for a week, he decided to take a self ban.

But, strangely enough, a challenger has appeared, and now someone COMPLETELY NEW and unknown has started posting a...lot...on the same thread.

The guy's name is "Lord42O"

Suspicious. Yeah. Especially for these reasons:

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=4286611>

1) He started just an hour ago, AFTER int was banned. (Making me think int got banned, and then to not lose posts, got into this acc to start posting

2) he has already posted 101. YOU READ THAT RIGHT, 101 TIMES. in that same thread. in the same shitty quality as int.

3) before these 101 posts, he only had 18 posts on other threads, with a few being about selling netflix accs, and the rest begging for money making methods (another similar trait to int)

Now, here's the big final proofs

1) NOBODY knew about Lord42O before this thread, HE CAME OUT OF NOWHERE! yet the 17 "hey pls gimme book" posts before the 101 post SPAM on the giveaway were enough to make int curious enough to check Lord42O's account??

Don't mind the others (especially yin yang, who checked his account AFTER all the posts were made on the giveaways [keep in mind, they're still going])

Now, profile visits are a bit messed up and not chronological, but: INT WAS BANNED BEFORE THIS GUY STARTED SPAMMING THE GIVEAWAYS. SO INT TECHNICALLY HAS NO IDEA THA THIS GUY WOULD HAVE EVER SPAMMED THE THREAD. WHY DID HE CHECK THE ACCOUNT?

Technically, int was only limited access, so only couldn't post, but he was petty enough to selfban himself. if he had not done that, this wouldn't be a reason i'd be proposing as proof that it's int.

2) FINAL PROOF. The name itself, Lord42O is obviously a reference to 420. But in a special way. The 0 becomes an O. You know who else calls 420 42O? Nobody, except int.

here's some proof, from the official hackforums discord. I'm searching up "42O", so this would include EVERYBODY who ever said 42O on hackforums discord. 7 results, all being from int.

I'm sure some of int's post also called 420 42O, but I can't be bothered to check it.

Since the moment I started writing this post, Lord42O only had 82 posts on the giveaway thread. While writing it, he had 101.

Now that I finished writing, he has 117.

Holy shit that's some detective work right there.

BTC - August 26, 2019, 4:23 pm

Damn you caught him red-handed.

After a long time of int getting warned a ridiculous amount of times, I think it's time for something to happen to this guy

He is so annoying some times

Always posting LQ stuff and flaming threads, never actually adding to conversations...just posting nonsense and bringing down the quality of the forum

Lindros - August 26, 2019, 4:25 pm

Will I get banned for posting a lot in the thread? It has been locked.

I apologize now for any posts I posted that were LQ.

It ended up closed because there's a certain amount of posts limit per thread. Seems like 2500 was it and the other 2 just got lucky with the timing before it closed.

Yeah that is what I thought but the message was that it was locked by a moderator.

I wonder if the giveaway is still going to happen?

If int is banned than I wonder if they will just redraw if his name gets picked.

I think it just auto locked I don't think a mod locked it even omni came in and said he might boost the post count limit for the thread and make it the number 1 thread of 2019.

Also that is a good question.

1k isn't life changing I'd say but it is a lot for me right now as I am a student.

I have made $60k a year before and I still think 1k of free money for just staying active on a thread is a pretty good return.

You might have noticed, but I'm not the one offering a giveaway or charity. Simply stating out the obvious. If you ever happen to buy a house, you'll have lots of money invested in property which you can one day sell or rent out. Renting is never really a good investment.

Well I mean there is rent to own scenarios and unless you got some good credit or a high paying job you ain't gonna be able to afford a house.

I know and I'm not seriously asking to send money. Everyone has different lifestyles. $1k for a person in USA might be nothing, $1k for someone in a 3rd world country might change change his life. It all depends on where you're.

Also, I'm still at uni so ofc i can't afford a good apartment to buy. I could've either went for a uni dorm room or rent an apartment in an alright area for almost same price.

THANKS FOR THE SUPPORT GUYS and to anyone who wonders what will happen, honestly, I don't know if either of his accounts will be banned.

But seeing this happen would be really funny:

I doubt Vanilla would do that since he'd recognize his ""efforts"" (effort in filling up HF with LQP)

The giveaway thread autoclosed at 2500 otherwise he'd still be replying. But I forgot to point out that OBVIOUSLY I didn't count all posts by myself, you could see the real-time "who posted how many times" with this simple javascript code:

javascript:MyBB.whoPosted(6001708) <-- keep in mind if you copy and paste it the "javascript" won't be pasted, so you'll have to type it again

I thought Lavish was desperate by replying to thread as soon as someone replied (if you could make a double post without anyone in between, I think he'd have done it too) and he only had 24 replies. if he wasn't banned I wonder the fight he & int would've had to anyone who filled up the thread, I don't hate you personally, money's still money, but int deserves to be made fun of after this. with the kind of replies he pulled, he already was a meme, but after getting postbanned and multiying and STILL spamming, then he deserves it.

No hate to others who spammed the thread, I'm not part of the giveaway but I think everyone should get a chance. with around 629 posts out of 2499 he has a 25% chance of winning. which is sad for his efforts, and I really do hope that someone who legitimately needs the $1k wins it.

maybe even someone who had just 1 post, as a final MEME.

flavoral, I'm not trying to come across as a dickhead. I don't even see where I went wrong, but I'm an adult who finished university. Lots of adults earn what I earn and lots earn a hell of a lot more than I do. In all honesty I earn about $100 an hour. Not $200, that was a typo. I don't mean to come across as bragging or anything. I don't want to make people feel bad about their earnings, but I'm merely pointing out that a lot of these so called scammers are genuinely so... how should I put this.. so, uhh, poor when it comes to their desired amounts. I'm just saying, if I were a scammer, I'd make it worth my while. Say, call center like worth my while.

Don't get me wrong here either, fuck those call center scammers and fuck any and all scammers. Some just have no motivation or inspiration. What am I even saying. Look, sorry I offended you or anyone else. That's not the point I was trying to make. Also, this place is fun. It's a place for like-minded people to get together and discuss quite a few topics. I'm just pointing to you that not everyone have equal opportunities, and not everyone lives in a 1st world country. $200 could be the monthly salary for a person somewhere. Try investing into properties with that amount. Also people are from different ages too so a $30 for a 15y old kid feels different than for a 25y old dude. You're just seeing it from your POV where you live when you should also see it from other perspectives.

(Aug 26, 2019 04:13 PM)HackingDoge Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) So I'd have reported this in a simple PM

but since it's about a certain desperate individual, i'm posting this out here so that everyone can have a laugh

TL;DR this user here, called "int" Hack Forums - Profile of int was desperate enough to reply 499 times on a SINGULAR thread, for a $1000 giveaway.

now, $1000 is life-changing money for some people but knowing how many "vouch copies" int has gotten in the past, and his positive vouches, I'd say that even if 1 ebook was successful, he'd surely be making some decent money monthly knowing so many "free money" methods.

Does this desperatoin prove that ebooks make no money??? idk, you'll be the judge.

BUT HERE IS WHAT I'M MAKING THE THREAD FOR

As soon as int got post banned for a week, he decided to take a self ban.

But, strangely enough, a challenger has appeared, and now someone COMPLETELY NEW and unknown has started posting a...lot...on the same thread.

The guy's name is "Lord42O"

Suspicious. Yeah. Especially for these reasons: Hack Forums - Profile of Lord42O

1) He started just an hour ago, AFTER int was banned. (Making me think int got banned, and then to not lose posts, got into this acc to start posting

2) he has already posted 101. YOU READ THAT RIGHT, 101 TIMES. in that same thread. in the same shitty quality as int.

3) before these 101 posts, he only had 18 posts on other threads, with a few being about selling netflix accs, and the rest begging for money making methods (another similar trait to int)

Now, here's the big final proofs

1) NOBODY knew about Lord42O before this thread, HE CAME OUT OF NOWHERE! yet the 17 "hey pls gimme book" posts before the 101 post SPAM on the giveaway were enough to make int curious enough to check Lord42O's account??

Don't mind the others (especially yin yang, who checked his account AFTER all the posts were made on the giveaways [keep in mind, they're still going]

Now, profile visits are a bit messed up and not chronological, but: INT WAS BANNED BEFORE THIS GUY STARTED SPAMMING THE GIVEAWAYS. SO INT TECHNICALLY HAS NO IDEA THAT THIS GUY WOULD HAVE EVER SPAMMED THE THREAD. WHY DID HE CHECK THE ACCOUNT?

Technically, int was only limited access, so only couldn't post, but he was petty enough to selfban himself. if he had not done that, this wouldn't be a reason i'd be proposing as proof that it's int.

2) FINAL PROOF. The name itself, Lord42O is obviously a reference to 420. But in a special way. The 0 becomes an O. You know who else calls 420 42O? Nobody, except int.

here's some proof, from the official hackforums discord. I'm searching up "42O", so this would include EVERYBODY who ever said 42O on hackforums discord. 7 results, all being from int.

I'm sure some of int's post also called 420 42O, but I can't be bothered to check it.

Since the moment I started writing this post, Lord42O only had 82 posts on the giveaway thread. While writing it, he had 101.

Now that I finished writing, he has 117.

D e s p e r a t e.

First of all I have no idea who "int" is and I have never spoken to him.

You have no solid proofs like.. all of that you wrote are just accusations.. nothing more.

Am I not allowed to make a post asking for the ebook of the thread owner like he asked? basically just what i did.. looking if I could find something interesting.

You're also accusing me of being someone who again I don't know.. because I have "42O" in my name.. do you really consider that a proof?

Not gonna say much because I'm sure the admins on here can confirm if I'm that "int" guy or not somehow but about the giveaway topic, The topic owner said we could enter as many times as we want.. I didn't even come close to the amount of posts some people did on that topic and as far as I know it is allowed to enter as much as I want on that topic.

You could be a detective like everyone said but you lack what a detective needs, solid proof.. all you said is worth nothing... just accusations.

the only "solid proof" would be if you were foolish enough to keep the same IP as your secondary account but the accusations in the thread are enough to make anyone with a brain go like "ok, that's EXTREMELY unlikely to happen if they didn't know eachother".

Answer me this:

What are the chances that, a guy called Lord42O, starts spamming the giveaway thread, the same thread in which int was interested in winning, RIGHT after he got banned, and that your profile was visited by HIMSELF BEFORE HE GOT BANNED when you were an absolutely NOBODY, and that you & him seem to be the only 2 retards that use 42O on this website/discord.

So you're telling me that you DON'T know him...so that means that the second retard who uses 42O just so happened to find the giveaway RIGHT AFTER the first retard who uses 42O happened to be banned.

update:

lord42O now has 142 posts on the giveaway, he's still tryharding. SAD!

with the effort int had put into posting, did anyone think that he would just accept a 7 day post ban and let other people spam posts to have a higher chance to win, and ruin his chances?

no.

I'm sure that even if Lord42O had limited access, we would see another account pop up and start spamming for no reason.

- OP joined my discord and accused int of being Lord's multi.

- When I said I knew Lord personally and no way in hell he's someone's multi, He accused him of colluding with him anyway to win the giveaway.

- OP's proof is int saying "42O" and Lord having that in his name which is indeed a proof of how insane OP is.

Let me get this straight.

You are accusing two members of colluding to join a giveaway, which allows multiple posts/entries which statistically improves their chances of winning, then share their earnings if either of them wins?

SOUNDS WILD

My boy Lord is broke and that's the truth.

He's joining multiple giveaways on multiple forums in order to fund some ventures he's planning. One thing I'm sure, Lord isn't someone's multi and he won't be taking orders from someone to join giveaways.

My boy Lord is broke and that's the truth.

He's joining multiple giveaways on multiple forums in order to fund some ventures he's planning. One thing I'm sure, Lord isn't someone's multi and he won't be taking orders from someone to join giveaways.

think you got it mixed up bro.

also can you prove any of your claims?

"free money" makes people do retarded things

Who'd even have the time to do that? I bet he or she wouldn't even get paid either, so it's almost like charity work. Except you're better off doing actual charity work for people who are genuinly in need.

Perhaps one of the group members can do it then, they work for free just to get a userbar, don't they ? ?

Nah, nothing against 'group' people, it's just that this is probably not gonna happen. Just making a point.

That's true, however the person who wins this should at least be checked and you know, put down before it lays eggs and then they draw a new winner :D

Good question, What would you consider a decent proof in those cases?

Maybe me telling Lord about multiple forums he can join to sell his stuff?

(keep in mind that's MM/DD/YYYY which is the same date he joined HF)

So here's a screenshot of me talking to him, recommending him to signup on HF (and multiple other forums) to sell his accounts/services.

smhl believe you can find the link to that discord sever on Omni's profile. At the very least I saw the link on his twitter yesterday. Found out yesterday, after being here for 30 days ?

Gonna send you a PM with the link, Cheers ?

so after some ""research"" I'm not 100% sure if its his multi. found lord on other websites too with the same name

EVERYTHING lead me to believe that int and Lord42O were connected (if you read the thread then you'd understand my point of view)

too many coincidences to think they're two individuals who didn't know eachother

The theory that I'm more inclined to believe now is that Null KNEW of Lord42O WAY before this (from another site) and asked him if he could enter the giveaway (and potentially split earnings, obviously, not like int is being a charity).

Lord42O registered on another forum last month (day after he registered on HF) and is a lot more active on that, and Null probably met him on it (or on discord) and started saying 42O as a reference to his name, because he liked it (theory is believable because Null's first "42O" was on 15 august 2019, so after he must have known Lord42O) him claiming that he doesn't know int is obviously false.

they're just friends, and int asked lord to post.

still embarrassing

banonkiel is lord's best friend/"business partner" they both sell netflix accs and both use a single red letter as their profile picture on another forum idk what that last sentence is supposed to mean?

Is the design disturbing? I made both of them myself. Took me couple of minutes to creating each one.

The beauty isn't the color or anything. There's no animation nothing special about them, even the background is transparent.

The beauty lies in the simplicity. It took no time/effort to create them and that's why I loved it so much, I believe Lord agrees with me since he uses it.

To be honest though, I should have used a proper font to make it even better or other colors to make it more unique.

What do you think?

Since the entire topic is the child of your imagination, which I might as well say is very rich, I might as well get your opinion to improve my Profile picture.

Have a nice day/evening ?
