Thread: Looking for some social media advice with growing :\)

Anima - August 27, 2019, 12:59 pm

I've recently taken over the social media for the company that I work for and would just be great to get some advice from people on how to grow it efficiently :)

We have Facebook, Twitter and Instagram all with quite a low following (Under 50)

Thanks in advanced <3

Oh, I also have an SMM panel script that I don't mind sharing in exchange for help

I started growing through hashtags. The trick is to throw in the lesser used hashtags with the big ones. Instead of #mcdonalds #sucks use #mcdonaldssucks, or something along those lines...
