Thread: Should I ride out my 6 months of l33t more before I upgrade to the 1 year ub3r?

Lindros - August 27, 2019, 9:55 pm

I need to know if it is worth it to upgrade to ub3r now cause I feel like it technically wastes the 6 months of l33t if I upgrade to uber when I could be an upgraded member for longer.

What do you guys think?

Austin - August 27, 2019, 10:07 pm ub3r is superios to l33t in every way. And you need l33t to get to ub3r. Go ahead and upgrade now, everyone else with ub3r had to pay for l33t also! You're fine to upgrade :)

Yeah that makes sense, I'm going to try to upgrade soon then, thanks for the advice.

I would think you're losing money (in a manner of speaking) by waiting since you won't have access to all these nifty Ub3r features we have :)

It's possible that the price may increase too, as it has in the past. Yeah, you're right.

emotionull - August 27, 2019, 11:28 pm

If you have the money why not? What's stopping ya.

Elweth - August 28, 2019, 2:13 am

If you have too much cash, buy something else :P

Cooligan - August 28, 2019, 2:48 am

Well, really either way regarding the method of which you paid for the upgrade, it's only $20 max.

If it was me, I would upgrade to Ub3r if I met the requirements. The perks are worth it, you're able to access more of the forums, and not to mention those 1000 free Bytes you get when you upgrade. ?

The last time the prices changed were before your registration date, I do believe.

It's also possible that ub3r may be permanent upgrade again one day, none of us could know though.

That is the admins choice.

Rigel - August 28, 2019, 6:22 am

I wouldn't hesitate to upgrade to Ub3r because it definitely is much better.

Yes it was but I know that ub3r used to be cheaper and that it used to be permanent.

Wait, it isn't permanent anymore?

Nope, all I see is a one year option.

Bossk - August 28, 2019, 12:52 pm

yes bro you should upgrade to uber as soon as possible

Proxies - August 28, 2019, 12:55 pm

No- just pull the trigger and buy Ub3r now.

MavenGradle - August 28, 2019, 12:56 pm

I don't know why you'd buy the 6-month in the first place. I mean, this place is addictive and you'll probably end up buying l33t twice, instead of a single lifetime purchase ?

Pronouncer - August 28, 2019, 12:57 pm

I mean you could wait to the last month of your l33t then upgrade to uber xD

Nope, they changed the Ub3r upgrade to a one year upgrade.

Now when you hover over new upgrades Sapphire of Ub3r awards, the reason isn't "Thanks" anymore and is displayed:

Ub3r until xx/xx/xxxx

Oof. Glad I got it before that happened.

Did the ranks get combined or was that Omni just giving the finger to the Ub3rs?

all r00t members got given ub3r basically as a fuck you to the bitching ub3rs. if they didn't complain ub3r would be pretty fucking rare now in comparison to r00t i imagine but the whole idea got scrapped which is really unfortunate.

Dumbasses lol. The whole point of Ub3r was to be a sign of prestige and not something you could just buy. Maybe Omni will try something like it again in the future.

i guess v3ndor is kinda that, but its really only for marketplace users. i would like to see a new role one day to fill the void of ub3rs former glory

As i don't wanna risk getting my account closed, all i'm gonna say is get your facts right before posting. It was more than that.

i wasn't too active at the time, that was the impression I got at the time. Might look through some old threads I guess

By the time 6 months is up you already can get ub3r so I think the 6 month l33t is best bet.

I honestly miss the r00t account upgrade. It motivated people into actually putting effort and thought into their posts instead of all these r/AskReddit copy+paste threads. To be fair, I wasn't particularly active at the time, so I don't know if there was any real reasons for dumping the rank, but I got more or less the same impression you got.

Imo he was in a situation where no matter what he did SOMEONE was going to do nothing but endlessly bitch about his decision.

If he had removed manual review from ub3r; BOOM people would bitch.

If he had added a new rank to supersede ub3r; BOOM people would bitch.

If he had just breathed a little bit heavier than normal; BOOM people would bitch.

I think if he had just gone with the first choice and then the whiners to deal with it a lot of the headache from the whole r00t thing could have been avoided.

It's also not like the uh "poster child" for r00t was ahem a golden standard of quality anyway.

I'd say it's definitely worth the money.

Also, you can post in the Currency Exchange section, which to me is a huge advantage.

I have upgraded to ub3r, thank you everyone for your feedback.
