Thread: > Grand Profits - Make up to \$7,500/Month with one-time setup! Make living from this!

Infinity - August 28, 2019, 3:37 pm

Hello!

So last time i wanted to sell my main method with some others, and i sent vouch copy to int. He said only 4. method original (the main method), and all others sh-t cause they are grey-,blackhat methods.

Now i will sell only the method which can generate you good ammounts of money if you do it right! You can make an easy 0.05BTC/month (You will get paid weekly or monthly its up on you), and there is a way to scale up to 1BTC/month or EVEN MORE if you put enough effort into this.

The only reason im not doing this because im beginner programmer, and i never really hosted any website.

Its just an idea to make big ammounts, if you are smart and able to make a website, im sure you will earn a lot of money!

Limited copies!

Copies Available: 8/6

Price: $200 (Will be raised to $250 once 6. copy sold!)

Payment Methods: BTC/ETH

Vouch Copies Available: 2/0

Given to: Trite, Chief Bromden

I dont sell more copy to newly created accounts!!

No matter what you say.

The minimum requirements to purchase the method:

100+ post

40+ popularity

L33T+ upgrade

2+ B-rating, no negatives

Thats cause i dont want more sh-t here.

All of you made a circus from this thread. And those new accounts always make false claims just to get a refund, and then they resell with their main account.

Multi-accounting sh*ts go away.

If you can show an actual proof, than speak!

Next trash sales will be reported to Omni .

To do this method you need money or you need to know web-programming!

If you have this knowledge you can make very nice ammounts!

The method DOESN'T INVOLVE

- + eWhoring
- + eBay
- + Dropshipping
- + Shopify
- + Wordpress
- + Fraud
- + Blackhat methods
- + Hacking / Cracking
- + Reselling
- + Forex / Trading
- + Amazon
- + Carding and other stuff
- + Public shit

Let me start off by saying I've never seen this method on this forum or on the internet. I can't say it's not, but I've never seen it.

The content inside the ebook/method is unique especially if you know how to program and utilize websites. If you present yourself very professionally you can make said earnings and more like OP stated.

There were a few areas you can tell that OP has some trouble in English, but even so you can understand and follow along very well.

This method is pretty easy to do with or without programming knowledge or knowing how to create a website. You can 100% pay someone to create everything for you and if you wanted to go a step further you could potentially pay someone to utilize this for you and make it 100% autopilot, but you'd need a little trust with the individual.

$200+ is high especially for some members on here, but theoretically you can make that back and more just from 1 client which you could have reoccurring every month.

Setup time depends on you. It could take 1 hour to 24 hours. After everything is setup you could potentially start making profit after an hour and once you've done it a few times you could make upwards of $1k-$5k in a single day for the right individual. It comes down to you and your professionalism.

The method is only 3 pages long and only 2 pages containing the method. OP could go more in-depth with the method and add detailed notes and screenshots, but I guess since he doesn't utilize this he hasn't taken the time to do so.

I would rate this method an 8.5/10

I personally haven't performed the method yet because I'm very busy, but plan too at a later date.

GLWS OP and thanks for giving me the chance to review your method.

If I'm eligible I'll take a vouch copy and put my time into doing the method tomorrow.

Infinity - August 28, 2019, 4:06 pm

Sorry but i will still wait for some vouch entries.

Btw you wont make profits in your first day, cause only the setup takes more than 1 day. You need to work with this, but im sure you will earn big if you aren't lazy.

You can make an easy $1-2k in your first month and later you can make way more!

My english is bad, i hosted a website but it was a store to sell accounts.

Its not an untested method, but once i gave out vouch you will see. You wont really find this type of websites, if you choose a good domain name and setup everything correctly you can earn over 1 BTC/month after your page goes big.

If you have good ammount of money you will earn big ammounts faster. Im working full time, i cant work on this one.

Grand Profits Review

So people stop crying like bi t ches, I will perform this method and upload payment proof over the weekend.

First earnings:

Huge vouch from me!

"but I guess since he doesn't utilize this he hasn't taken the time to do so." This statement is interesting. I want to ask OP do you use this method yourself? or Have you tried it before?

Vitaly - August 29, 2019, 11:22 am

I never understand why people leave reviews of their VOUCH COPY to make sure it's working but never try the method... making their review pointless.

If you would like to give me a vouch copy i'll be sure to actually try the method and leave a detailed review, happy to pay for the method if it ends up working too.

I dunno why people don't do this tbh, like send them a vouch copy and if its not a fake method send them some of your profits because its 100% not saturated method.

And for the love of god if your asking for a vouch copy please do the method and stop wasting ops time.

evelution - August 29, 2019, 11:57 am

Yeah, agreed with the poster above. It's nice to know that you think it's a good method, but why ask for a vouch copy if you're not going to implement? Not cool.. honestly if it was my thread, I would have put in the contract that they have to try or get neg market rep

extortion - August 29, 2019, 1:33 pm

This what I been saying to OP. People get the method and leave reviews but never try it. It's a waste. There should be an obligation people need to fill in the contract which states they MUST try the method if receiving vouch copy.

OP I advise you look into this and reconsider myself or someone else that will actually try the method. Rep means nothing.

I mean technically there IS an obligation. HF requires contracts for all dealings, including vouch copies.

Their contract can be seen here: <https://hackforums.net/contracts.php?action=view&cid=89507>

Does what Trite posted constitute an honest review? He didn't actually try the method, which I'm assuming isn't what the OP intended when allowing him to have access to it. Soooo... If you want to get all nit-picky about it, OP could dispute the contract and leave a negative B-Rating if he so chooses.

Would anyone care? Probably not.

I plan on using it, but when you work full time, have a wife, kid, and a house your schedule becomes very full.

I also love how everyone above me are talking shit just because you didn't receive a vouch copy. People have lives and just because I've taken longer than a day to perform this method you're jumping down throats. I simply left a review so everyone's not impatiently waiting. Calling out @trite to confirm this isn't offering free wordpress websites then hitting them up with godaddy link or something to get affiliate commission.

EDIT: or anything even close to that shit.

EDIT 2: Theres even a free youtube video teaching this. LOL

I hope you have it in your heart to forgive everyone here for not having blind faith in some no namer who made a review that contained the words "I personally haven't performed the method." I hope that in the future, us HFers learn to show respect to all reviews that start with "I personally haven't performed the method yet" as bad reviews are reviews too, and we don't want anyone with hurt feelings!

To be honest, the method require a longer setup time, and you must spend some $-s on domain, hosting, SSL certificate and other things to start with this method.

I will giveaway next vouch to be real, but dont know which member will get this one, and still thinking about selling only 5 copies, and increase sale price, so once i start with this i dont need to compete with 15-20 people... :)

In 3-4 hours i will update ebook with more info, after that i send out the vouch copy to someone!

So, as a requirement for your next vouch copy, have the person first prove that they have everything necessary to attempt your method. Make them put up a page at <https://theirdomain.com/infinity.txt> with a message to you, therefore proving that they have the ability and the know how to even edit a basic web page.

Get someone actually trusted to review you product, someone who has nothing to gain from a potential scam, as your sales thread looks oddly similar to make others that have turned out to be scams in the past month.

Correct. As I said in my review if you present yourself very professional you can make money from this.

There's still one vouch copy left yeah? I'd say give it to one of the gents above. Spiral or Bromden

Infinity - August 30, 2019, 12:19 pm

To be honest, yeah you can earn a LOT with this.

I stated $5000 because i would say you will make an avg. 5k /month if you setup everything right and you have a medium quality, modern site.

But once you have a good traffic, and your site goes big you will make an easy $25k/month or way more. Its a new idea, but i dont go further, only for buyers. (dont wanna leak...)

I wanna hear one more member who can do this, and you will see im not a liar.

You will ask, why i dont make this then, the only reason that i have my domain, but im really beginner in web development/programming.

Once i have the funds to pay a professional programmer i will do this, but i dont wanna start with low quality site.:)

I appreciate the offer but I'm not interested in reviewing any methods. If Trite's proof is accurate though, then it sounds like you have something decent going. Best of luck finding someone qualified for the second vouch copy. You may be better off approaching someone rather than waiting for someone qualified to come to you. Check the programming sections.

extortion - August 30, 2019, 1:52 pm

Me too. I'd be willing to drop some money on this and I know a lil bit about programming and have made some websites in the past. This isn't a new field to me and I'll actually leave a detailed and thought out review. Myself and Brom know what we're doing. I'm blunt enough to give a no bs review that others can go forward with.

Lol man, i told you to delete the info about method from dispute and i will chargeback you.

You basically leaked some important information about method so...

Also why you dont message me about refund? I dont really care about $50, i wont risk my account for this low ammount haha.

Or give me your Discord so we can speak faster...

I said i wont sell more copies to new accounts sorry.

Btw if i could show you payment proof, how you know if its from the method? You cant tell this, so payment proofs pointless.

I will show real payment proofs once i found good developers to do this and made some good profits.

Yeah, it is worldwide.

- Btw i guess i will delete thread soon till i get a real vouch, and will re-open with real proofs from Chief.

Its just stupid how you all made off-topic sh*t from this thread, its so stupid.

You guys have 0 proof to be honest. 1 more sh-t post and i report to Omni all of you who made fake claims about my method.

Well i will just close this sh.t.

Brain damaged forum, full of tards who just trash sale no reason and stupid leakers.
