Would be interested in the trial.

Deal - September 4, 2019, 3:10 am

Can I ask you, are you from Denmark?

Prawnster - September 4, 2019, 3:12 am

I've not tried this before, I'm interested in the trial though

Dash - September 4, 2019, 6:43 am

Would love to try this, what sort of profit could I make a week on average, thanks.

geta12 - September 4, 2019, 8:10 am

How far in advance do you post the bets? I live on the other side of the world to Europe so I usually miss out on the bets (Sep 4, 2019 06:43 AM)Dash Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Would love to try this, what sort of profit could I make a week on average, thanks.It all depends on your initial investment. Our official bets are relatively safe so if you follow them and manage your bankroll as per instructed, you should be earning money consistently every week.

(Sep 4, 2019 08:10 AM)geta12 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) How far in advance do you post the bets? I live on the other side of the world to Europe so I usually miss out on the betsIt depends on the particular bets. Sometimes we do live bets or challenges. However, we try to do 3 (or more) prebets per day. Usually posted around noon CET but it'll depend on a particular day. But there'll, for the most part, be several hours to get in on the fun.

All trials have been claimed.

Performer - September 5, 2019, 2:09 pm

The first day ended 4/5 - 80% hit rate. Profit of $105 with investments of $50 per bet.

Injun Joe - September 6, 2019, 1:53 am

I will wait for your one week sheet.

Today ends at 8/12 with a hit rate of 66.66%. We played some higher odds bets today so we're comfortably in green for the day. We are at a 70% hit rate for the month so far.

thomore - September 8, 2019, 2:58 pm

Hi, I'm also a football fan and who bets occasionally. May I join?

We're sitting just below 70% hit rate for the month right now. We're 150% on bankroll since the start of the month so everything is flowing smoothly though we're looking for more green in the statistics. These are the results so far this month: <http://prntscr.com/p3xdc6>

Here is my review after having gotten the three days trial.

Some quick info. I started with 50 dollars. Upon ending the trial period I had a 150 dollars profit. I did not play on all the matches, and I did not follow a certain bankroll management strategy.

I can however say that while I was a trial member, Performer had an average daily win rate of about 80% with most of his bets ranging from 1.60 - 2.20.

I would definitely say that it is worth it to buy a membership. With a decent investment, you can easily make back your money plus interests.

Everyone who knows me knows that I can be a cunt, and would never vouch for a product to please anyone. I can say that this betting group is genuine, and that the owner is skilled in his craft.

Lilharold - September 10, 2019, 5:21 am

I was one of the people to receive one of the trial periods of 48 hours - This is now completed.

To start off with, the OP was very helpful and understanding towards the fact that I did not understand how this sort of thing worked and was happy to explain it all to me and helped me get my betting account set up. He also helped me understand the way he was displaying the match information and predicted outcome when I got confused with that.

After the betting had began, the OP was supplying 3+ bets a day and the average success rate was around 70-75% for these days. I managed to improve my starting amount of $20 invested and make it into around $50 at a great pace very fast, which I then withdrew and ended my 2 day trial period - This amount could be more, if I had invested more and used every bet that the OP posted (I was offline for some of the time and missed a few odd matches).

So tl;dr, OP is very help, and has a good success-rate from what I have witnessed.

Thanks for the trial OP, you've got my vouch.

What is your yield?

Pre-match betting or live betting?

On which website do you have your verified statistics?

Do you register your picks in blogabet or on a similar website?

Thanks in advance! Most decent sites will have the bets we share. Personally, I use Bet365 and Betfair but even crypto sites will do. For payments we accept PayPal and Bitcoin.

You can't get serious yield with live betting, because nobody has time to follow you all day.

You have no verified statistics anywhere, only what you wrote yourself. There is no way to verify anything.

Setting up blogabet only takes 5 minutes, you can set it up right now and post your picks there. Publishing a pick in blogabet takes only 1 minute. In this way, you will have verified statistics and nobody, not even you, can modify.

Finally, no serious tipster makes challenges like "$ 200 to $ 5000 Challenge", which is the first rule of a tipster. Only charlatans make those challenges to impress newbies.

- I've set up a blogabet that I'll be sharing the bets on as well. Will have to figure out the platform before, but everything is being tracked. If you're not into live betting, this may not be the group for you as that is a part of what we do.

Rambukus - September 17, 2019, 7:41 am agree with everything Linx said, Im sure you are aware that 99% of people that are selling picks are scammers, so legitimizing your picks with blogabet or pickmonitor would be mandatory.

Also, the initial investment is up to you. It depends on what kind of return you expect and the risk you're willing to take.
