My friend asked me to get information on this one username so he DMed me the name. So I sent him whatever I found on it from database dumps...and then he reported me.

Needless to say we arnt friends anymore. RIP my OG discord account :(

I literally just close Discords that are in competition with mine. Super easy to do lol.

W3 S33 4LL - September 4, 2019, 6:32 am

The thing that pisses me off is that, I didn't even dox this guy fully. However, back a few months ago when I was doxing a shitton of kids, nothing happened.

Discord mods are finally responsible for once?

Well; too bad for you guys, sorry. ?

I tried dealing with a guy who was a little/big CEH premium hacker type of guy behind a webstore PHSec mentioned a while ago.

The PM from PHSec (not him) told me about a payment system (whether it's a cc or account or whatawhata) in his own store whether he might have a Spokeo or BeenVerif accounts or other available for me to get into for dealing with something, suddenly - it's "money in 2019/2020s" b.s only for all this - Booll. :-\

I am going deny all this along the money for my heartbroken reasons and better off throwing my uses for the HF site away for me in future to dislike it - ngl; mah. ' , ' ,

Of course but for them to actively read your PMs to check for violations screams privacy invasion.

But how does discord even have proof, they cant just ban for someone saying oh he doxed me and then instantly banned. Bit odd.

What is it you did in order to receive the ban?

Also were you IP banned or just the account?

he made another account so i don't think it's ip banned funtela - September 4, 2019, 11:11 am

Didn't think Discord goes so far to investigate things like that.

W3 S33 4LL - September 4, 2019, 11:13 am

Nah, I'm not ip banned.

The only thing I regret is not giving my servers to my friend on time. So I basically lost my servers I owned.

If he didn't have any proof that you did it then how the hell did he get Discord support to believe him?

As in what is the overall topic? Also is it used as a marketplace?

We didn't talk in any of the servers, very rarely, and it was just a few words. We just talk on dms about various of topics. Illegal may I say.

The servers are hacking oriented

Then that's most likely why.

They probably saw the server, who owned it, and then subsequently (somehow under some law or TOS policy) they read the transcripts of your DM's and then banned your account.

Idk about the whole reading your DM's part, however seeing the server was hacking related that definitely sounds why or why it might have been the cause.

Yup, sounds about right. They must have something in their TOS that states they're allowed to do that "if necessary".

Shitty part is though you never truly know what's "necessary" lol.

I'd rather use Skype than Discord tbh, too bad there aren't many good IM services these days without some kind of catch (no privacy, no encryption, requires phone number, no message sync between devices, to name a few with different services)

Yeah; right. ?

I can keep my Discord account(s), but... problem is;

making one or more is becoming more problematic with just always phone number b.s someday.

I have just to keep my own one as the main forever for now.

Not a fan of those along money during futures to the life of 2019 mostly. : \

I mean just don't be dumb.

If you're talking about things you wouldn't want getting out, don't use a platform like Discord.. Simple.

However for everyday communications, Discord is great. I've never had any issues.
