Thread: [\[Winner Announced\] 1000 Bytes Contest](#)

Ivex - September 4, 2019, 8:52 am

I'm giving away 1000 Bytes to one lucky winner. If this goes well I'll repeat it. I'm aware I only have 700 right now but I rack up Bytes fast so don't worry, I'll be there.

Entry Requirements:

1. Have a look at my free eBook: 100 Ways to Earn Money Online 2019.
2. Reply with a one sentence quote from the eBook - it can be from anywhere, just not a quote someone else has used.
3. Profit.

Where to get the eBook:

From my site: <https://thelazymillionaire.net/ebook/> (this link requires email sign-up, I promise the only emails I will send are when my blog releases, when the 2020 edition is out and a maximum bi-monthly newsletter that will be filled with whatever the best ways to make money online are for that month).

Direct Link: <https://thelazymillionaire.net/downloads/ebook2019.pdf> (VT: <https://www.virustotal.com/gui/url/64b96761f853602ccc6c1b47fc5bde8f775e9873f5b01a8d6ca1b25a0d1cc7d0/>) (I appreciate some of you are very skeptical about privacy so this is an option I care more about you reading it than building my blog subscriber list, you could always use your secondary email though)

Good luck, winner announced on the 18th September.

Reselling is a viable money-making option on SEOClerks too. Even if you yourself don't know much about being a webmaster or digital / social media marketing, it doesn't mean you can't profit from reselling these services.

I hope I win this. thank you OP ;D

Checked the ebook and it looks good.

Also smart way to advertise and build that list ?

Once I have a 100+ articles I'm going to send out an email and hopefully I'll have a pre-existing audience of 1000+ to give me that boost I need.

Going to have to relearn SEO, I was 14 last time I ranked a website.

Are you the artsy type? If the answer to that question is yes, I have found your money-making calling.

That's a lot of methods, good luck with the sells :)

Blogger - September 4, 2019, 1:35 pm

My goodness. Is that your actual PayPal balance? I'm reading every word of your book. lol

[read the book to know] allows you to earn money from giving your opinion on clothes and music. They literally ask you to write a few lines about it and answer a few questions on pricing, boom – money. They also allow you to give your opinions on music for money – so get listening and earning.

Thanks for the contest!

And no, I wish. I was earning $500+ a day for a while when I was doing CPA but that image was inspect elemented to clickbait a little.

The truth is, CPA was my first serious attempt at making money - I succeeded and only stopped because it was the first time I had a lot of money so I just spent a year having fun and living off it.

This brand, The Lazy Millionaire, is my second. I'm treating it more like a full-time job though and have steps of how to reach various monetary goals with the final being £50 million in savings (which I can hopefully achieve before I'm 30, I'm 19 now).

This eBook is part of the plan to reach £10,000 in profit purely from The Lazy Millionaire project. I expect to achieve it a few months into distribution, once I have 10,000+ downloads. Alongside having 100 articles up on the blog which I'm primarily building as SEO articles - directly targeting things I myself have searched for in the past to gain a shit load of referrals.

From there I have plans to expand and so on and so forth.

So no, that's not my balance. But, it sure will be.

It takes $ to make $, that's what I got from reading. And having some investment is a good start and you can scale.

Thanks for doing this giveaway

And true. You can easily build up a few $k to invest from doing small tasks.

I'm actually going to generate the investment for ads for my blog by doing case studies of the smaller methods shown in the eBook. So, I'll be creating content whilst earning from creating it. ?

Forums got me into the nerdy side of the internet and making money online.
From the age of 7, I was partaking in and moderating Club Penguin fan forums – as you can tell, I was well cool. By 9 I'd created my first forum, by 11 I'd sold my first forum for a whole $25 – baller.

Posting to enter hope 2 win!

Posting to enter hope 2 win!Ah the iconic origins of my forum career. I used to pretend I was 16 when I was like 11 and ended up moderating some pretty big forums.

What if you could earn from using a browser that is faster and more secure than Chrome, Firefox, Opera, Internet Explorer, etc?

This book is damn good. I didn't expect much from it, but it has a ton of methods, some of which I haven't heard of that range from whitehat to greyhat to blackhat.

Nice OP, nice!

Thanks for this!!

Blogger - September 15, 2019, 10:35 am

I agree.^ Didn't know that you got paid to use Brave until I read this ebook.

A paycheck every single month? Didn't think it was that lucrative. I'm definitely going to do it. I spent my morning reading your ebook and starting a few of your methods.

Off topic, congratulations on Vendor!

Off topic, congratulations on Vendor!As in a pay slip they give every month to my BAT balance, sorry that was badly worded of me!

And awesome, I'm glad you're reading it. If you have any questions let me know.

And thank you! Hopefully this means I have an excuse to spend even more time on HF!
