Gamblers is a group dedicated to all things gambling. Gambling is strictly a form of entertainment and enjoyment. We do not support underage gambling, illegal gambling, or gambling addictions. We will provide resources for those who believe they may suffer from a gambling addiction.

Recruitment Requirements:

There are no specific requirements at this time.

Application Format:

Code 1. What is your country of residency?

2. Are you of legal age to gamble in your country?

Regulus - September 5, 2019, 4:51 pm

1. What is your country of residency?
I live in Australia
2. What is your age?
I am 28.
3. Why do you want to join Gamblers?
Because I do like to gamble once in a while.
I usually just stick to the Roulette table in casinos, I won a lot of cash. (I once spent $50 and I walked out of the casino with $850. :D) but I can play other games as well but not as good as roulette since it is my main game. I used to go to the casino once every month with my grandma before she passed away.
4. Will you be willing to pay a monthly fee ($25-50) that will be used for the monthly Poker tournaments?
Sure and I could join those tournaments not that much though.
5. Will you attend the bi-annual meet up cash game / poker tournament at Omniscent's house? (Las Vegas, Nevada USA)
Yes and no.. Main problem is I live in Australia and it will be hell of a chore to fly to US and can be expensive as fuck.

Pikachu - September 6, 2019, 2:45 am

1. What is your country of residency?
USA
2. What is your age?

I also want to learn to play poker, I mean I know very little but it would be great to actually sit down and take the time to fully learn. The most I do whenever I go to casino's is play the slots, I haven't tried any of the poker tables.

4. Will you be willing to pay a monthly fee ($25-50) that will be used for the monthly Poker tournaments?

I would if i could afford to do so, honestly my money situation is tight right now.

5. Will you attend the bi-annual meet up cash game / poker tournament at Omniscent's house? (Las Vegas, Nevada USA)

That sounds like fun, I'm only 4 hours away so maybe depending on how my situation at the time looks.

3. Why do you want to join Gamblers? When it comes to gambling, I'm about as degenerate as it gets. Been gambling hundreds of dollars since I was 13 yrs old on Runescape dicing, which later progressed into online poker through BigBoiBets. It taught me a lot and I made so many amazing friends through it. Some of them became millionaires later on by running their own online casinos. All in all, gambling will always be a part of me, probably because my brain's dopamine system was jacked @ an early age from intense gambling.

Looks like we might be good to go. Start of a new era boys!

Will reach out to those interested in around a week or so. ?

Recruitment is pretty much over,

Anyone interested in joining just PM me. There is a mandatory $50 monthly membership fee that will go towards the monthly poker tourneys, if you aren't willing to pay that then don't pm. Thanks.

Lavish Living - September 23, 2019, 6:40 am

Pm me or apply via the usercp if you're interested in joining. Thanks

We have a confirmed 7 or 8 members for our monthly tournament. We will hopefully livestream it, with voice chat (so you can all hear my effective poker speech play) so others can enjoy it and maybe join us for November!

My hopes are that this tourney will grow which in turn our group will grow and take over HF! Hail hitler!

Exactly what timin what timezone do you plan the tourney to occur?

If I plan a future buy-in it stands to reason that most of these games will be 3am for me when I gotta work a few hours later. Not normally an issue, but annoying to work with if so.

All our official monthly tournies will be on the first Sunday of the month at 11am PST.

Once our group grows to 20, 30, 40 members, I expect many alternative tournaments or possibly a weekly tournament to be scheduled and more accessible possibly.

But the only tournament that is included in your buyin is the official monthly one.

Damn that's 8am Monday morning for me. Worse than 3am. That decides it, can't afford to pay $50 for a buyin to a groups compulsory tourney I can't even attend ? mental

But yeah if you guys do expand into other things once a core monthly group is established I'd definitely look again then.

GMT +8:00 Western Australia.

It's funny new Zealand where I'm from gets daylight for the next day first. If you wake up in nz on birthday then fly between new Zealand and surrounding islands in longitudes either side of the country - you can technically land and celebrate your birthday 3 times in 24 hours being there at midnight for each one so it's legit.

Cool little thing.

I'm fairly sure it was 3 times(correct me if I'm wrong, could be 2 but that's not hard just fly to the east of the country and you entered the previous day.

3. Why do you want to join Gamblers? Probably because I feel like it would be a great place for me since I'm a gambler and I waste a few thousands every now and then on online casinos. Also, I like that pink username.
4. Will you be willing to pay the $50 monthly fee that will be used for the monthly Poker tournaments? If it's online then yes, but if I have to fly to USA (which costs me few hundred at least for one direction) then I won't because I won't be attending those tournaments.
5. Will you attend the bi-annual meet up cash game / poker tournament at Omniscent's house? (Las Vegas, Nevada USA): As I said above, no unless you fly me there. With spending $1-2k per month on slots I don't have money to buy a plane ticket unless I hit a jackpot. Besides that, I would love to attend and steal some of your money (playing Poker of course).

Damn, making your members pay monthly. I thought you get at least 6 months though. Maybe do a tournament once a month for new members to be invited if they put in. Let your group members feel wanted. You can't put a price tag on a colored username and userbar. Lead the group.

Best of luck. Hope you hold your group and make it.

I can't be fucked leading a group lol.

The monthly buyin is the only thing that keeps it the least bit active, for 2 hours a month. Other than that it's currently a dead group.

The price tag for the colored username and userbar is $10 a month with a chance to win money. I think that's completely reasonable, as do the 10 or so members who have participated in the past 2 tournaments.

A solid 6-10 members down to play poker for $50 a month is good enough in my book.

I will eventually try to get an official custom award (pink diamond) that will be awarded to the winner of the monthly tournament for 12 consecutive months. Depending on how much Omni would charge me for a custom award x12... I expect the monthly buyin to increase to something around $100-150 if the award happens.
