Can you explain more about this?

Nevermind, I see your deal dispute.

After reading your deal dispute against OP, and OP's deal dispute against you, it definitely sounds like you're in the wrong.

I'm siding with OP on this one, you sound like a nightmare to deal with.

We did absolutely nothing wrong.

There was no blackmailing as the deal between us and m1design included leaving a rating here (even discounted for that).

First off m1design treated us extremely poorly, shouting racial slurs and insults, we went above and beyond for this kid, tried to help him with all sorts of stuff out of our scope and responsibility.

Big mistake on our end, as people like him should just be banned and ignored.

We fixed his "website" multiple times after he broke it (wordpress updates, elementor updates, widgets, the list goes on). After he locked us out while working (as the scrolling animation was not finished yet) we got pretty pissed off and added a simple JS script that redirects to our website, with the plan to remove that script after we were both done (this is called a foot in the door, is common practice with clients like him).

Mr m1design we are sorry things went like this but you are to blame. Our only fault was being too kind to you instead of dropping you at the first red flag. We are notifying you for the 3rd time that you should let us remove the unauthorized code from your wordpress, as you are committing a copyright violation (its a crime).

Thank you BV1, we hope HF staff can do something, as we dont deserve your negative rating. ?
