Thread: AMC redeemer coke bot

packofmidgets - September 13, 2019, 8:12 am

This bot will redeem coke codes for you on the MyCokeRewards site to get you the AMc tickets.

You will need to provide accounts and codes.

I sell both accounts and codes which I will have a thread open soon after this one for those.

This is an EASY way to make some profit since these tickets sell easy.

Here is what the bot looks like:

Price is $10 for the first TWO people to buy after that it will be $20 per copy.

You do not get the right to resell or give away.

This promo ends on 10/03/19 so get it while you can since they only do this once every 3-4 months. Stock up while you can.

To give you an idea of what these can sell for just take a look at these recent sales on Ebay,

You get 2 black movie tickets (no expiration date),(2 large drinks, 1 large popcorn expire 6/30/2020) with this promo

This is a script written in python so if you buy and need help on how to use it I will help you out.

No vouch copies will be given but I did state first two copies will be sold for only $10 per copy.

Seems pretty badass bro. Wish I had an active ebay account. I'd definitely buy this for the profits. Ebay just gives me so many issues.
