Thread: Deal With Extreme Caution - Mr. Blade - 1534418

SIM-2698200 - September 15, 2019, 3:56 am

Hello Everyone: -

Prior I begin this scamming report this scammer scammed one another respective member of HF below is the thread link, I would like to be concise and want to explain this in short, I had a deal with Mr. Blade to design a dynamic job/opportunities website for me which it would be comprises of below things:

- 1- Login Page
- 2- Registration Page
- 3- Payment system and etc....

We agreed to finish this project within 15 days and further agreed to pay him 50$ in advance to start the project I paid 50$ below is the proof of BTC, he told me to make the website in accordance to my desire since I had doubt and clarified everything in my self-made ebook to make the website in accordance to ebook if there could be a minor changes required you have to change or adjust those changes in accordance to my desire below is his PM screenshot which he says will design the site as per my desire.

He even dont know English properly but for sure you guys will ask me why i dealt with this uneducated and low level person, he showed me some sample of websites and i had doubt that how he made those websites and i was became further curious to ask some technical question he answered those question correctly or satisfactorily and got my attraction, despite that he has a good popularity and for sure everyone will go for dealing with him.

Scammed by ?Mr Blade™ [$50 - Web Development] (1534418):

Where is the contract between you & him?

HF doesn't get involved in the deal disputes - 'deleting' or banning scammers will happen at the admin's discretion.

First u bypass the contract system which would be some guarantee for you then u get scammed, come here, getting cocky and bitchy at the same time, dissing people who tried to explain to you some people will never learn, hope u get closed for not using contract system

fucking idiot

fugging idiot

Let me clarify this to you what you mean by a contract? whats contract? what does a contract do? isnt a contract means two person consensual for a deal? didnt we dealing similar to this in the past? i dont know why you backing or defending him and selling your account value for a minor worthless thing, You could tell me that, this isnt his ID? that HF pm does not belong to him? that he aint received funds into his stated BTC account? and that he didnt scammed another person back in 2018, Why you judging one side and why you cant be unilateral and judge as whats right and wrong.

You've got your head so far up your own ass you fail to realize he's being helpful. You're in the wrong here, if you'd spent 5 minutes reading up on what's required to deal on this site you wouldn't be in this position.

I aint said anything wrong to him but i just recalled him to please resolve your disputes too dont get me wrong plz, i recognize being scammed is how hard, and i aint did anything wrong which my position goes under question i just dealt with him based on his popularity! that's it.

You misunderstand me, I'm saying you're in no position to open a deal dispute and chastise other users for clarifying the rules to you, when you didn't use the required contract system. This deal dispute is invalid, regardless of proof. No contract = no dispute.

Prawnster - September 16, 2019, 5:08 am

OP, just turn this into a community alert (you can make those without creating a contract with the person).

That way, you can still expose a scammer to the community if they avoided the contract system and took advantage of you not knowing.

I stated in the above that this contract system imposed lately in HF and for that i could accept that i aint followed contract, but i stated too that contract is only a consensual between parties and you can see his verbal conset, i am just saying that at least we could accept that he got the fund and scammed me and i just dealt as i was dealing in the past. At least we could judge equally and we can see this too that this is not his first time scamming member of HF, i aint said i want my money or any reward from you guys nor chastising someone i only just trying to show his real soul to public and requesting from who has the authority to please avoid these foul from business section and keep room clean as it was in the past.

Exactly thats what i am trying to say! Thank you for perceiving my position but they keep says bs and defending a scammer! It gives hope for living while i see real persons like you!

5. Anyone refusing to use the Contracts system in a deal on HF is subject to an account closure.

I sympathize with your loss mate, getting scammed isn't the best position to be in. We are trying to explain to you that our options in helping are very limited because you did not use an HF contract, which puts any risk and loss on solely you. We can only hope someone else does not get scammed by him thanks to your alert.

Quote:UNACCEPTABLE.

Do not use Community Alerts to post Deal Disputes. And if you have no Contract then you have no dispute.

Section Rule:

3. This is not the deals dispute forum.

Yeah agree, but i was not aware from contract system, and if you consider this as a mistake then it was from both side and the scammer deceived me and took advantage of my unawareness, to that end, i can take this risk and saying this that both of our account must get close since we both violated the rule NOT ONLY ME!, and i would be much happy that i could be a reason to delete/vanish a scammer from here and to eschew someone else from scamming.

I said turn it into a community alert, not post a deal dispute lol

so just alert people that this person is a scammer and then its fine

I wish they could have a rule for misinterpretation, The interesting part is if you see the other scam report he is the one backing him up there too.

The only thing you got is the knowledge that you had to open contracts for a deal through HF and if something goes wrong, administration will deal with those scammers or fraud. Also,

Yeah be careful of thief's, and the interesting part is that their teammate who has viable part in scamming of HF members they keep manipulating their rate with negative, and they use this tool violently.

Hey guys, this scam report i opened back in 2019 is still valid, the scammer still in HF operates under separate ID.

The guy who scammed me still lives in HF and to do date a resoulution to this scam report is pending.

The scammer just pmd me recently again under his different account other than the one reported in main scam report for a requirement i had, Either he may forgotten about me or he knows me well and yet again attempts to scam me. My claim is being supported by an identical skype ID he still uses once where he communicated with me in 2019.
