Thread: eWhore Book - Suggestions Needed

?Galaxy - September 15, 2019, 1:13 pm

Couple years ago me and Kashira released an eBook that went down well and was successful, helping many people. 2 years later, this section quality wise has taken a huge dive, this eBook that will be released (which is paid - obviously) is in an attempt to raise the standards. The list of things we will be writing about so far won't be displayed as we don't want other people who are also making an eBook to copy us ;)

Without being cocky me and Kashira are one of the few quality users on this section that have stayed. The 'glory' days have since past, so trust me as to when you have a suggestion, that it will be done well.

Given Kashiras past in helping users, something we will certainly be offering is 1:1 experience for those that require on hand involvement.

And for pricing, it won't be cheap, but it won't be fuck off expensive either. Mentoring won't be cheap, because simply put, why would we mentor someone else when it'd be more profitable for us to just do it ourselves?

Suggestions so far :

? Double Dipping Methods + Additional SE tips for continuing cash flow

Kashira - September 15, 2019, 1:20 pm

2 whole years later and you can just look how much this section has deteriorated.

From extremely basic information being sold to now packs being $$$? Cmon now. (Yes, I will call out all of you like I did before)

We're going to go back to the basics and are revamping this area of marketing.

If anyone paid any attention to us would know we aren't any amateurs within this game, we'll be providing the best possible information with 0 mistakes.

Reference to 2 years ago, <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5654645>

Along with this I've decided to devote myself to become more active in the subsection since my inactivity. Expect more widely available free content and methods that I'll soon re-provide.

Exact opposite, just seeing who needs help.

Don't post if you don't have anything to contribute. (:

You and your friend come here because u will "help" the ewhoring community by selling them an ebook, lol, are u gandhi?

The only one that will benefit from this is you

Clearly you have no understanding of this sections marketplace so don't speak what you don't know.

You can go ahead and say that to every other seller, but this can't apply to us who aren't even in the market.

Previously we we're and had nothing but positivity from it, so please go bash someone else with your nonsense.

Kryme - September 15, 2019, 3:15 pm

I think many people would be interested in knowing how to further profit from pre-existing premium buyers

Noted!

We'll be re-adding our dipping methods and will be sure to include SE that'll talk in depth about how to acquire another sale after just the one.

This is not a marketplace lol, its ewhoring section, so don't speak what you don't know

You're so clueless it isn't even funny, but enjoy the rep reset as you clearly still don't know what you're talking about.

Maybe if you paid attention you'd see the 6 threads on almost every subsection that comes from the marketplace section.

Anyone else have anything in particular they'd like to see? I can imagine quite a few people purchase ebooks and don't get the best information on what to do.

I've has success with:

'Hi Babe im super wet, rubbing my teen pussy <3
I'm naked on my bed doggystyle waiting for you ;)
I'll send you 25 nudes and 3 videos, for a $50 donation :)"

Is there anything better than a horny girl?

Let me know how I can improve, ty.
We had this before so I'll be sure to include!

In my opinion things like emoticons shouldn't be used often at all, you have to have a visualization like you're right next to the person talking.

If you repeat certain words or emoticons it'll just seem more suspicious on your part, only use them every other sentence and mix them around.

One suggestion I use in regards to kik is to reverse the text emoticons so kik won't automatically give you their scuffed emotes.

Ex: :) = (:

In regards to pricing, never go below the 1$ minimum when it comes to pictures. If anything there's 0 risk in upping your prices as the most stupidest people will still purchase if fooled.

Not sure if you two are still planning on releasing this, but I think you should. I remember you both from back in the day, and I remember Kashira personally being very knowledgeable and helping me. This whole section has gone to shit, along with everything being sold regarding it. Some guy was selling a pack on here of a girl with like 4 million insta followers not so long ago, hopefully what you planning on selling will be HQ and will actually help people.

I'm a new user who is just started in eWhoring.

From my experience this part of the forum is the least helpful out of any of them.

I'm gonna be straight with you and say now I don't have enough money to buy the book now, but even if you just generally increase the standard of posts in this sub-section I'll be pleased.

But hats off to you for trying ?

Unfortunately the sections is in bad condition. Admins dont want a seperate forum for the pack threads so its harder to find valuable info.

Me and Kashira have been talking just seeing what would be best, when he's actually a sentient being again we'll see what we can do.
