Thread: Made my first Shopify earnings yesterday

I am completely new to the Shopify scene but I got a nice idea for a niche and decided to try it out.

These 2 sales happend the second day after I setup the ads. So far I am still at loss but I hope I will make my investment back today or tomorrow. If it doesn't work out as I expected after a week I will shut it down.

50% is profit.

Well done man, I only ever tried dropshipping once and didnt make any sales :')

Congratz!

"So far I am still at loss but I hope I will make my investment back today or tomorrow."

It is completely normal, you should be on breakeven for 1~2 weeks before you start to be profitable on a daily basis.

At this point, you just "buy/invest" in data.

Are you doing facebook ads? Or through instagram influencers?

I am doing both. Instagram shoutouts are pretty cheap for this niche ?

Shutting down after 1 week would be pretty upsetting.. If you've managed to get sales within such a short period of time you should have no issue making it work. But it can take more than a week to figure out the best option(s). Keep at it.

I have a lot to say about this approach that people on this forum take, for any business not just ecommerce. It's wrong but who am I to say anything, if I tell him my opinion he'll just get angry. So, OP if you'd like to change the way you look on earning money, send me a message and let me explain you something without getting angry because if you continue aiming for quick earnings, you won't get far.

Currently reworking the store on Wordpress as Shopify is shit. I think I am not gonna shut it down, it makes 1-2 sales daily with minimum advertising. After I remake it on Wordpress I will start advertising it more.

Honestly, I think its a bad idea, but good luck.

If you shut down the store and move on to the next product I would like to which product u tested ?

Why would switching to Woocommerce be a bad idea?

Do you know which advertising method made you the two sales?

Congrats btw

Not sure why you would want to switch to Wordpress, running on Shopify is 1000X better. You really should stick with Shopify sadfire - September 22, 2019, 1:00 am

Agree. Why would you even migrate to woocommerce.

funtela - September 22, 2019, 3:31 pm

Congrats man! I actually just launched my store today :)

Secretgod - September 22, 2019, 4:39 pm

congrats, keep it up , instagram shoutouts worked for me better

SIM-4378207 - October 4, 2019, 6:02 am

Welp, decided to listen to you guys and I didnt stop the store nor moved it to WooCommerce. Started making profit from the store just a few days ago.

I am also working on a new store currently, this time it will look better. Lets see how this goes :)

Well-done! I love seeing startups. The first order, the first profit marge calculated, the first happy review! It's truly one of the best feelings there is in the e-commerce world, don't you think?

Good luck with sales , i have only one advise for you save your money and for the moment don't pay anyone to help you , you will recive message from guys , that have magic receipt to win , guys that have winning product , and other that make magic shopify , you are the only person that have the magic key of succeses sorry for my english , but trust me , if you don't get your money back , you need to find your own way to get sales , don't use what all use , because it will saturated , and customer will see your product in another shop , and maybe for less , or with same picture and they will be septic , so you need to find your own way to make ads and get traffic , because don't forget traffic is the most important in dropshipping
