Someone else on the forum sells these and stated there is a small risk to getting your account banned, are you using the same method?

You mean me? Lol

If they were obtained legally, OP should have a receipt for these no?

@OP, so can you present us with the receipt of buting these legally?

Definitely am in not affiliation with Bear or whatever method he uses. Unless we exchange

I obviously don't buy them to resell and can provide any info a customer who's interested needs.

If you want a receipt when you buy to confirm legitimacy I can give that.

Not sure where all the illegal talk comes from unless that's your method?

Gets extremely defensive and insults you over PMs when asking for proof, word of caution.

I'm just not playing games. You were clearly wasting my time and not interested. Saying you will maybe be interested but your friends with bear and he sells codes. It just doesn't sit well with me so sit down sir

Still selling these guys!!

If you're buying yes! If you're just trolling a new member on site like your friend no!

End of story. Focus on your own business and I'll focus on mine, ignorance is a bliss

I'll buy one from you if you can provide legit receipt of purchase for gift card. Should I start a contract for you to send legit proof
