Thread: [\[PREVIOUS THREAD MAXED\] Never Do your Homework Again! - Free Method](#)

Deployed - September 20, 2019, 11:45 am

Hello Hackforums,

Today I will be giving out a method to never have to do your homework again.

Quick Disclaimer, I do not encourage avoiding homework however there is a time in life in which you might just not want to answer 20 short answer questions about Da Vinci's penis length; and in that instance this method is for you

My Previous thread is from years ago from my previous account
(I have been given permission to open a new one as the old was closed for inactivity)

This thread MAXED out (Yes I was apart of Empire, shoutout crew!):

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2822347>

And this thread was on its way: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4589976>

Anyway, just comment below if you would like me to PM you the method,

Funny guide on how to SE your school mates. 10/10 would recommend giving it a go if you're a highschooler... but really it's just commonsense.

Staff: i did not pay for this method and it is not for sale i didnt want to contract for this "review" as it would be abusing the b-rating.

Entirely, definitely 100% a High School method or can work on maybe 1/4 of your College homework. Thanks for the read!
