vegashck - October 6, 2019, 12:53 pm

hey you have scammed me rasakabi , i have received this ip rdp server 18.220.124.94 from you , but after 24 hours the rdp server was not more responding because the cpu of the server was saturated , after this i have contacted you with telegram to make restart the server but you didn't ,and after 3 days and 6 days i have recontacted you to make restart the server or to receive a refund , and after this you have blocked me from telegram and now is impossible to message you with telegram because you have blocked me , now this server 18.220.124.94 is offline and i want a refund or i want a new rdp server now . you are a big scammer shit seller .

You really are unbearable.

If you didn't follow HF rules while conducting your deal then i suggest you go rant somewhere else.

And who gives two flying fucks about a 7$ RDP.

Lastly, if you wish to get to him, go file a police complaint with your nearest police station. Then maybe he will be apprehended.

Okay.

Nanga you are for sure the clone of rasakabi and you and him are the same person , these rules of rasakabi are for sure scamming rules , i have never used the rdp of rasakab , and i neved used this rdp server because the cpu was saturated at 100% and was impossible to connect to the rdp server , and was also a shitty rdp server with a low cpu power

Hey what about CPU on these RDP's? Do they have shared resources?

Any chance of it getting down because it's cracked and owner might find out?
