Thread: Mobale issue

Claw - September 24, 2019, 9:12 pm

I think i'm only one who have issues with mobale always, so this time i read xerotic thread, i cleared cache, tested 2 browsers header won't show, its like being blind.

Winds - September 24, 2019, 9:17 pm

Don't worry I have the same issue. Cleared cache, loaded CSS a dozens of time, still nothing :(

SIM-1729678 - September 24, 2019, 9:19 pm

On my personal browser (brave mobile) I had to clear Cached images and FILES as well as site settings to make it work. I also cleaned the cookies and site data by hand for HF to not lose all other sites.

Clearing just Cache wasn't enough for me also.

Spoiler (Click to View)

My browser is very dedicated, it only save cache and cookies, deleted both and didn't work tho, hope they fix it, idk where to read notifications.

lol - September 24, 2019, 10:03 pm

yeah same here. for now, if you need to access your settings/alerts/PMs/etc... just rotate your phone lol

Sir - September 24, 2019, 10:45 pm

.... Honestly.. when you use massive images please put them in a spoiler.

That's a headache waiting to happen.

Astrogen - September 24, 2019, 10:49 pm

same thing here, don't see anything

Changing to the theme Mobale blue fixed the issue for me. So until this is fixed, use the blue theme
Change it here: <https://hackforums.net/usercp.php?action=options>

This issue has been resolved. If you are still having display problems then visit this page and clear it from your cache:

Purple Theme:

<https://hackforums.net/cache/themes/theme12/response.css>

Blue Theme:

<https://hackforums.net/cache/themes/theme13/response.css>

Green Theme:

<https://hackforums.net/cache/themes/theme14/response.css>

Red Theme:

<https://hackforums.net/cache/themes/theme15/response.css>

Out of curiosity, what caused this to happen to others but for example not me?

Either you are using a theme that didn't have the issue (Blue and possibly Purple) or you never cleared your cache in the first place to receive the new navigation changes.

I have used the new navigation since the release yesterday. Running the blue theme so that must be it.

I cleared my cache and visited all of the pages a dozens of times, yet I'm still having this problem on Safari :\

The newest linked pages? Try again. Unfortunately until you clear your cached files and update the CSS this won't be fixed for you. It sucks but that's the way it is.

Go to Settings => Safari
Click on "Clear History and Website Data"
Then scroll down to Advanced
Click on "Website Data" and delete HF's data

Someone should make a great Blog post about clearing cache for iOS and Android in two separate blogs articles.

<https://hackforums.net/blog.php> I am trying to do this; however, there is a 2000 character cap on the blog posts. That is a bit too much to elaborate appropriately on a how-to of clearing caching issues on mobile devices.

That can't be correct.

EDIT: and it's not...it's the opposite..

"Blog entries must be at least 2000 characters long"

"Blog entries must be at least 2000 characters long"Sorry, that is what I meant. I have filled out a rather well-telling and straight to the point blog post, without all the unnecessary shenanigans, and I can't justify getting more than 1,000 characters.

.. And hey, congratulations on getting the award for replying to my stupid post.

Pastebin or PM me your content. How many characters is it?

Worked as well, thanks mate!

For all who have same problem, changing to blue theme will fix it, cleared cache and whole things still have the issue for red theme.

I don't get why any of the navigation items are under a single tab. Why not remove the tab and just have the links when you press the hamburger menu?

Crimin4L - September 25, 2019, 5:16 pm having this problem too. will upload photo when i get home.

I have 0 navigation

Yin Yang - September 25, 2019, 5:18 pm

It's working fine for me on iPhone XS Max

Go to usercp and maybe you'll understand why.

Change your theme if you're not on default.
