Ugh. If it wasn't a voice chat I'd be down. Add me on Discord anyway. I don't know what it is offhand, but it's on my profile.

Uhh I find it easier to talk to people via voicechat because I feel like its more genuine & warm. Conversational flow is a lot better too and the exchange of knowledge is faster in my opinion

I agree, but I'm always busy and multitasking so I couldn't pay attention to someone talking to me.

I'd love to but I've just went to bed. PM me if you would like to maybe add me tomorrow if you're feeling bored again. I think I'm going to be available all day tomorrow playing RuneScape. My English sucks ass though nowadays and I'll probably such to voice chat with.
