Thread: [\[Report\] User thinks he "tricked the system" screenshots of \(fake\) vouches](#)

SIM-4086413 - September 27, 2019, 12:34 pm

I noticed this thread where a new HF member started selling a method.

He was using screenshots/pictures from another forum, potentially not even actually related to the method presented here on HF.

I informed him that it's against the rules to use vouches that are not linked to a contract let alone vouches that are not even from HF.

He basically told me in other words that he couldn't give a crap about the rule and he literally said that he "tricked the system" because it are pictures and he calls it feedback not vouches.

Because he thinks that he is smarter than "the system" and he first tried to trick me into believing him that he would delete the vouches but then decided that he would not I figured that it was worth the report.

If this is allowed and I'm completely wrong then I apologize sincerely but I believe that this is not allowed.

A vouch has to have a contract linked to this specific thread even when it's a picture of the vouch.

Thanks for mentioning it.

(Sep 27, 2019 11:45 AM)Magaddino Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Yeah but it's not a personal issue, it's an official Hackforums rule and people have been banned for breaking it.

You are warned.

(Sep 27, 2019 11:48 AM)GubiSeKmico Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) I now know. Just saying it's a retarded rule. Will update

(Sep 27, 2019 12:25 PM)GubiSeKmico Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Those are not vouches. It's feedback. Don't be mad that I tricked the system. Kindly refer me to where it is mentioned that I can't add (feedback) images to my post and I will remove them immediately. Thank you.

Sounds like a fraud to me, but hey, it's up to Omniscient to decide whether he's wrong or not.

I do support you for a hundred percent. I don't like people who think they can outsmart the creator of this forum.. sounds almost too idiotic to think he could trick the system.

He tricked us alright.

Your profile picture matches this reply way too good.

Wow, you are all so fucking retarded. It was real feedback & real vouches which can easily be checked (still) with a simple google search or a simple pm/request for me to send you the links if you're that lazy. The only thing the Magaddino nonce mentioned was that "vouches" can't be from other forums, so I re-worded it to "feedback" (still vouches though) and tricked the system whether you like it or not. You're just mad :/

You will ban this account too, but before you do that, please let me hear your thoughts below as you have definitely read this and got schooled.

Peace out, you know where to find me.

And yes, you owe me 14.61$ for the time left on the upgraded rank.

Yes, we are retarded. You are closed. Thanks for playing.
