Classic scam.

Also the user is lying on ALL of his disputes with notes saying that it was resolved, while it wasn't.

User has sent me a PM but this is not resolved yet.

This is not resolved. I also noticed that the user has been lying on all of their disputes and giving the idea of them being "resolved"

He scammed, bullied, and gang repped me. I just reported him to staff.

He scammed, bullied, and gang repped me. I just reported him to staff.- Screenshots are fake

- Deal was on the 24th of Sept as per the PM: <https://prnt.sc/pc0lxt>, you faked screenshots from the 4th of Sept

- I'm asking you to send the account, the deal was via HF PM which is why I specifically asked you for the BTC address via HF PM.

- Rep does not exist anymore btw, and you brought that upon yourself when you opened a fake dispute (after scamming, lol)
