INTRO

I am very excited and pleased to announce that I have partnered up with Instagram influencer and manager @Millz to bring you this special service.

HOW IT WORKS

@Millz is heavily connected with hundreds of Instagram influencers and he connects people together to orchestrate giveaways to the influencers audiences. They make a post on their Instagram account that is scheduled to drop at a specific time that is premised around giving away money. The influencer promises the lucky winner/winners a prize and all they have to do in order to enter into the giveaway is go into the description of the post and go to a specified @instagramaccount and they have to follow all of the accounts that account is following.

People pay a specific amount of money to get onto the list, and the accounts on this list gain either an estimated or guaranteed amount of followers, this is relative to each individual giveaway that is running.
