Thread: [New Award Goals \[24k and Sportsbook\]](#)

Omniscient - October 3, 2019, 12:21 pm

We have added 2 new Award Goals.

1. 24k - Just make 24,000 posts to earn. This has actually always been the goal of that award but now it's officially on the page.

2. Sportsbook - For this you have to make 100k ? worth of bets in our new Sportsbook feature in any 30 day period. Please note that it's a rolling 30 days.

Enjoy and thanks.

TheChaosKiller - October 3, 2019, 12:22 pm

Love it! I was hoping you'd be adding more award goals as it makes things more exciting and gives us levels to aim for. Will be shooting high for these ones!

SoulZeh - October 3, 2019, 12:22 pm

I was just looking at that.. Is there any difference between the "Diamond A valued member of our community." Or will that be just invalid to earn?

Nice add tho.

BTC - October 3, 2019, 12:23 pm

Awesome. Nice addition.

Maybe if I knew more about sports I would be able to get that sportsbook one. I'd just end up losing 100k bytes to get the award lol

Gonna be a long grind but I'm gonna try to get that 24k star.

After 9 years you have 8k posts. Basically another 18 years and you'll earn the 24k. If HF is here in 18 years and I'm still running it. Please someone shoot me dead.

If your posts were pruned that means they were deleted and possibly shouldn't have existed in the first place.

Back in the days of aimlessly posting.

Well. Just bet my first 9K on the sports book.

Don't know American odds system though. Also don't know anything about NFL.

Fortunate - October 3, 2019, 12:50 pm

Time to get both of them, the 24k might just take a little to achieve.

Great adds.

Lavish Living - October 3, 2019, 1:01 pm

About to bet 100k bytes on the chiefs. Only forsure win imo.

Where do you think you are going in 18 years?? Both HF and you are staying.

+mK - October 3, 2019, 1:11 pm

Possible dumb question, but just for clarification: For Sportsbook, that's basically saying you have to PUT UP 100K bytes to receive the award, NOT win 100K bytes as a reward, right?

Bastille - October 3, 2019, 1:13 pm

The first one is pretty interesting, will get it in probably some years

Quote:For Sportsbook, that's basically saying you have to PUT UP 100K bytes to receive the award,

Correct. Just have to risk that much and also in total bets over 30 days. It doesn't have to be a single bet.

That team is fast, where I'm at I usually can't watch the games from them but I always watch the highlights. I have had a huge hope for that team the past few years. I think in the mid 40's they were going to be called the panthers but the owner refused.

A lot of members ask me for time-based milestone awards. Basically you'd get an award for being here like 5 years or 10 years. Even if you had just 1000 posts which over 5 years is nothing. 24k over 10 years is about 200 posts per month or 7 posts per day.

If Xerotic can figure out the math. :) But I don't think so honestly. Not unless the SportsBook gets huge on HF.

To be honest, I think 24k is actually fine, back in the day it was so easy due to so many lounge whores, I think the closets I ever got to it was 14k posts, but then from previous groups and lounge posted from the groups getting deleted/junked then pruned stung me like a bitch.

I actually think that would be a great achievement for award goals and activity around the forum. Then again though we get rewarded for post count with stars under our name.

Exactly, it makes sense to have it for 24k posts due to you only being able to get 7/8 Stars under your name, I can't remember.
