Damn sucks brah. Rain is only good when you're comfy in bed at night

Just windows with a few hard disks and some external usb drives. Running a Plex media server and I'm using Debian WSL for Apache to run a frontend for the rtorrent client. I wanted to run Debian entirely but i kept getting kernel crashes for some reason and nothing would solve it

Had my car crashed in to a couple months back which has now made my insurance go ridiculously high... So that's kinda lame. Other than that I'm all good, can't complain.

PR1V473 - October 5, 2019, 7:18 pm

The most annoying thing that happened is my Facebook ads getting stuck on 0.10$ spent and increasing 0.10-0.30$ per hour while I have an advert set to 400$ in 24h... out of those 24h around 15h it only has 4$ spent...

I got paid. Next day I was broke. Turns out being an adult sucks and bills gotta be paid. I was never told about this shit before entering this world. I want a refund.

Pawnhub - October 5, 2019, 8:00 pm

I got you boo. Flex me back but green.

SIM-2327840 - October 6, 2019, 1:41 am

Nothing really annoyed happened so that feels good. However, annoying is pretty subjective because you could get annoyed if your WiFi got down for a min or someone could be annoyed if he lost something important, crashed his car.. etc.

QKRLDN - October 6, 2019, 2:43 am

Lost all my money to gambling on bustabit

Half of them weren't even available to buy or stream anywhere anyway. And the other half are scattered across a dozen different streaming services so they can go fu?ck themselves, it's their own fault

Probably being a little late from work today. I'm never late, but my boss changed my shift yesterday night and didn't notice it while clubbing...

Got employee of the month and now after that I'm late.
