I'll be more than happy to take a vouch copy. I'm pretty experienced with social media and Snapchat in particular as well. ?

I didn't even know you could sell snapchat names. I'm actually curious as to how this process works now.

Of course you can! It's the "OG" market, it isn't as big as the Instagram market but it will grow definitely. People like to spend a lot of Snapchat usernames especially brands & influencers. The most I've sold a Snapchat for is $1,500. It was an influencer who's Instagram matched the snapchat and wanted it as a pair so their Social portfolio looked cleaner and more professional

So its like you get the Snapchat names/profiles and then go and find influencers and brands to sell them to?

Yes, but you don't even have to go and look for them, there are forums (i cant link) where you just post them for sale and you'll get interest instantly

snapchat is becoming even more profitable

Updated the guide, found multiple methods.

Sounds interesting. How do these forums work? Are they in the same style as this, as in, you would never trust a new member? Would you have to build up a reputation there first?

it's one forum, it's known as OGU, I can't say the full name here but it's a VERY well-known marketplace for OG accounts, and it is just like hackforums. A lot of members on here are also on OGU

How long will it take to obtain a snapchat?

Could we use MM from OGU to hold funds as I read through method to
