Thread: BitcoinFactory - Proven multi and potential Ban evader. \(4394402 \)

SIM-4086413 - October 8, 2019, 1:31 pm

This is the second Community alert against this guy and its insane thst others have not seen this link before.

This is TheInferno aka Honor and Respect.
The notorious bulgarian scammer.

However that is speculation based on his post behaviour, grammar, the way he approaches and talks to people and based on a discord conversation i had with him where he admitted to having multiple accounts.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

FIRST COMMUNITY ALERT MADE BY DNA: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6012410>

I can not proof that he is a ban evader But i can proof that he is a multi!
He made a mistake on his thread thinking he was logged into his main account BitcoinFactory, he edited the post aswell but i was right on timr to get him quoted.

Interesting theories but how comes suddenly after Magaddino threatened me, a post was published by me from another account ?

Lol guys don't compare your IQ with mine. You both ran a project which didn't work and your customers got angry on you, while I run a project that is working long before yours and is still making crazy profits to us all ?

You treated your customers bad when they lost money, its normal that they are upset

P.S Everyone interested in the proof that he threatened me can contact me

Basically there is a trick where you can use the same name and tag like someone else in Discord
People used this to impost trusted users in other forums and scam newbies

I can show proof its needed

This is what Magaddino is doing right now. He also used another account to post on my thread pretending its me

What you think is "mad" is a passive aggressive tone, learn the difference.

When you insult people, you should expect to be insulted. It takes two to tango and you wanted to tango.

"You clearly aren't as smart as you think you are"

No need mate. This idiot's being added to my sh!t list and I'm calling it a night.

This stooge doesn't even know when he is using an insult. If he can't comprehend an insult, I doubt he can comprehend me.

Not many people will read my opinion but i am going to say it anyways:

both these people are low quality!

BitcoinFactory sells a 90x script which is freaking public, he did NOT create it. Someone from BustaBit posted it publicly for FREE and that pastebin was timestamped an year ago.

Secondly, Magaddino is a liar and crook. He sells an "unique,original script" which is actually just a simple martingale with a few twists. That is not my problem, because everyone can sell whatever.

My problem is that he lies to customers in his discord group, making it sound that his script is an actual foolproof method of winning. When someone asked if it can be patched , I replied there and told them that NO SCRIPT WILL EVER WIN FOR SURE! It is impossible to beat the house, when the house gets 1%, long term.

It is all about luck. After this statement, he just banned me from there.

Both people are greedy pieces of shit. Period. The only reason they started this war was to get rid of competition.

If anyone sees this message, do not ever buy anything from these crooks. I can provide you all scripts for free, because they are public.

Also, search for @MyDogsFoodMoney in Bustabit. That guy has 99.9% of all scripts and usually gives them for free or for a small tip.
