Sorry, we did some alterations to the server time and it screwed this up. Should be fixed now, some extra Bytes earned but that's okay. Enjoy them.

There are days where waking up feels infinitely harder than days prior, on those days I like to focus on the small things and the challenge of rising out of bed in the morning doesn't seem so insurmountable after all. A warm cup of coffee I could make, a relaxing shower before work, pleasant music I could put on and enjoy. There's always something. Have a good 10th everybody and keep your head up. A quote for you:

With age, you see people fail more. You see yourself fail more. How do you keep that fearlessness of a kid? You keep going. Luckily, I'm not afraid to make a fool of myself.

I couldn't help but notice the same exact thing about duck's threads. Yes it seems like he's foreign and simply does not have good English skills yet, however at the same time it feels a little too much to be true, especially seeing some of the shit he posts.

Yeah a modern qualified European Psychologist hired by a school told him to stare into the sun to make his brain feel brighter. I think we should leave the myth that duck is serious at the door.
