User originally opened up a contract with me to sell me a "Mixing With The Masters" account with the payment being a btc address. When I sent the $10 to his BTC address OP said that he couldn't receive even access the wallet because he didn't have f2a, but was able to get the btc address to send me?

Then he sent me another contract with an ETH wallet and said I sent to the wrong address.

Told OP I won't go first again and that if he doesn't feel comfortable doing so get a MM. Then asked OP to cancel when he didn't want to move forward with deal.

Ended up getting scammed $10 BTC by this user. Has multiple dispute, be cautious of user!
