Thread: A Rant / Advice

Cuthbert - October 20, 2019, 11:27 pm

I dislike self-aggrandising saps who'd advance any point, so long as it bolsters their grievous little rhetorical identity of Mr Cool Smart Tough Man.

If you're guilty of this you should stop being such a viscerotonic simp, and care more about Truth than winning argument.

Alright. Goodbye.

Not even gunna pretend I have to vocabulary to understand this post, but okay then.

I dislike those who eat a thesaurus for breakfast and look down on those that eat alphabet-spaghetti for lunch.

This isn't therapy. I'm telling you what I dislike.

I like you. I think you're funny and smart. I think you're interesting and unique. Your vernacular might not be superfluous, but I know by instinct the scent of a superior man.

You comment in threads about them instead.

The funny thing is that I'm 75% sure this caused his rant:

All things aside, having the ability to let things go, to emotionally detach from a situation and simply utilize cold hard logic is a skill that will grow on you.

This thread has nothing to do with that autistic nerd.

As for you, you have nothing of significance to say to anyone, you are a poisonous little worm. You're an irrelevancy to almost everyone. Nothing you say or do matters. You're a bore, a tedious, tiresome, whiny, needy little bore. You'd be better off dead, you dumb little sh*t. Keep kissing his arse, you dopey spaz.

sorry for pissing you off !!! calm! down! now!

Watch out, he's about to explode.

You should really just stop, MrRandom and think about what you're doing.
