Thread: Someone who is very good at managing Google ads

xTaya - October 23, 2019, 3:28 pm

I'm looking to hire someone who is very good at managing google advertisements in a competitive niche.

You must have experience in google adwords before not accepting any newbies in this field.

The salary will depends on the results of your work with making the ad results better with your strategies.

Payment can be made in any payment method required including all cryptos, zelle, wire and bank transfer.

Start a conversation or PM me with your contact info if you are Interested in this job.

Display or search? What's your budget? How much ad spend are we talking here per day/month?
