RushEm - February 11, 2020, 9:18 pm

I'm a bit confused. What are you exactly selling here? Is this a viewer bot for different platforms?

01001 - February 12, 2020, 2:02 am

I'm sure whatever you're selling must be worth the price you are quoting; however, what if Google updates their algorithms? Don't you think manual work is better? Secondly, If this BOT will send traffic, then how Google will consider it. Nevertheless, I just got enticed from the thread title. Good luck!

Can you make time to show me a demo of the product? Do I get to configure the retention of views?

What about a Youtube/Google only build for $3k? Not interested in twitch.

Not sure I'd use it for my clients, but I definitely have some personal projects I could use this on.

Hi,

If your video published for global you don't need a bots my product already have automated 'Tier1'

network function but let's say you need a traffic from exact geo-target e.g. (USA or somewhere else) then you should buy bots or spread your file.

Anyway to see how this works without spending $2,500 for the month hoping I profit?

I'm sure it doesn't cost much on your end to give a discounted trial of some sort? But I'm no expert so correct me if I'm wrong.

Very interested though.. how would a few year old YouTube channel play out if I create new videos and evenly distributed those views throughout them to make it seem more organic / natural?

Hi,

Actually cost part is depends about what are you doing now on YouTube or Google and what is your targets?

Let's say if you are in a very competitive keyword on Google or YouTube and you earned daily or monthly basis profit more than $2,5k 'btw i know some keywords made than this amounts just daily' so you need basically more unique traffic, views etc. for boost your ranking and compete with your opponents.

And I have to spend some cost for getting bots (real PCs), hosted this bot on servers, licenses, tier1 IP networks etc. so... I think i am deserved make a some money from my software this tool not a overpriced everything depends your usage purpose

These days even you try to buy stable (traffic always should be stable or you should be in always control) Views, Organic Traffics etc. exactly you have to pay more than $2,5k I not talk about cheap bot views or fake china traffic like a came from qqtube I talking about HQ useful traffic.

For about organic/natural part: Software coding with AI format and you have many scenarios on the botnet panel If you know how to use traffic i guaranteed you can make more than $2,5k as i said everything depends your targets, keywords and purposes.

If you have more question do not hesitate just add me from telegram.

Google webmaster tools doesn't give google traffic measures. I think you are talking about the google analytics scripts, as they will provide google with this data, but no you won't need it for good ranking, actually it's more hurtful to your ranking, as it reduces your site performance a bit. I'm a top ranking csgo cheat website, never used analytics, still ranking between 1-8 in 40 different countries.

Google can not see your traffic, unless you give them the access which is done by using the analytics javascript on your website, and no it won't help your SEO ranking, it's a tool for analytic work, there exist other tools as well and Google don't use their own tool for ranking, thankfully.

How many live viewers can i send to a stream?

what extras i need to pay? RDP? Botnet?

What if i want to buy your service instead your SEORobot? i mean if you do all the work monthly for me and send traffic and million views, you said you can send like 5M how much money represent that amount?
