It should work everywhere. I'm from Europe too and I can attest that it works for our region.
Sending you a PM.

I received a vouch copy for this method and here is my honest review:

I just tried this and I managed to buy €50 worth of bitcoins using my credit card without any problems. I haven't heard about this company before, but there is a chance that others know about this exchange since it's registered since 2014. This method isn't a smart trick or some super secret method, just a website that allows you to use a credit card to buy bitcoins without being SUPER protected with verifications and stuff. They do have a KYC/AML policy where they can ask you for documents in case of any suspicious transactions.

If anyone thinks this method can be used to do fraudulent things with stolen credit cards, you're wrong. They have a good protection and are just a simple exchange that allow cc payments in a safe way.

They have only recently started exchanging directly through credit cards. And they are quite permissive when it comes to applying their KYC policy.

There is no minimal deposit, you can purchase 10€ worth of it if you want. They all work, virtual and physical. I've tried with my Skrill vcc and it worked.

you can get btc 1:1 on gambling websites no verification required just deposit and withdraw but it takes a couple days to process thats why im interested in this method if its instant.

ShadyAF - October 25, 2019, 11:26 pm

Yeah what's the price of this?

Nob - October 26, 2019, 1:39 am

What is the minimal deposit ?

There is no minimal deposit. You can purchase 10$ or 5$ worth of Bitcoin if you want so.

Do they accept VCC aswell as regular credit cards ?

Yes, they accept both. This feature was tested with a Skrill virtual credit card.

What is the rate ?

It's 1:0.98

What is the price of this ?

I will release it for 30$. I ask my customers not to divulge this site to anyone. I will also not sell this countless times as to not ruin it for everyone if it gets too much popularity and props up its safety measures.

Where does this work ?

Worldwide, except in the United States, sadly.

Is this a method using giftcardgranny or anything of the sort ?

No, it's not. It's very straightforward.

(Oct 25, 2019 07:12 PM)Chief Bromden Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Yeah Ive heard of that too, inb4 a laundering charge

On most websites there are rollover requirements, and even if you gamble on the safest things there is still a risk.

spaceynyc - October 26, 2019, 11:06 am

I purchased the method.

First of all OP, seems like a honest guy and he's a good communicator which I appreciate.

The website where the method is one I've never heard of. It seems very legitimate. Unfortunately, the method didn't work for me as I'm in the US and it doesn't accept cards from the US. OP gave me a refund with no issues. If you're from any other country I suggest you give it a shot, don't think you'll be disappointed. Also there is a 2% fee for every orders. So it's not 1:1 but it's close.

Most of the time you have to verify, they've become wary of this. (Talking about gambling websites) I've read all the documents again, and there doesn't seem to be a set limit after which you need to undergo kyc.

Yeah, I tried with a VPN it didn't work. You have to enter your address information that's attached to the card, that alone gives the site the power to decline your attempt. Only way I can think of around it is using a virtual card from another country if that's possible, but i'm not aware at the moment of how to make that happen.

On the site there's a list of currencies that it shows for you to calculate how much in BTC you'll get in exchange. USD isn't even on that list.

so if you say you have to verify most of the time then what makes this way unique since i can do the same verification on other sites which allow credit cards to purchase bitcoin? From your experience how much would you say is the most that you can buy without them asking for KYC/AML policy?

This was taken out of context. The guy who I was answering to was mentioning gambling websites. I have edited my post so that it doesn't confuse any more people.
I've been using them for some time now, and have hit 4000€ with no issue whatsoever, no verification.

Coverage isn't complete for less developed countries, but I know that India, the Philippines and Vietnam are accepted for exemple. PM me a country and I'll try to find out.

But if they're able to pay in foreign currency with their card (direct exchange, I know that works in the EU), then it should work anyway, no matter where you live.

Don't ask me why it doesn't work it's your method you should be trying to resolve this not me !!! , I have tried and even contacted support and they have simply said that's our ratessss. So unless you fix this . I would recommend not purchasing this method until OP CAN HELP ME

So rates are not 1:0.98?

Rate more or less revolves around 1:0.96. They have two different rates depending on if you're a returning customer or not. I've added a trick to my ebook to counter that, sent to that customer some time ago, but he hasn't given an update since.

Hey Sleighty, you must be confused, the contract was done more than 3 weeks ago and the method was sent on the third of December via PM.

(Dec 29, 2019 11:56 AM)dwalael Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) is there any genuine vouches for this?

Numerous people have been using it. I've had about 10 sales so far, and only had a problem with one customer, which I hope I solved, as I haven't heard back from him after sending an update.

I bought it 3 weeks ago, but I decided to buy Bitcoin yesterday. After purchasing using the site it told me "purchase done" and I did not get my bitcoin even after 24 hours.

Nob - December 30, 2019, 1:22 pm

Did you get payment successful at the end of the purchase ? This is the thing to watch. It can say purchase done yet the payment failed. You should have received an email from them letting you know whether your payment succeeded or failed.

Sales continue. Promo to 20$ is continued ! Grab yours while you can !

I received 0 emails stating failure/confirmations

Still waiting for response from the author regarding this: bought twice from the site the method works with and I did not get my coins

sleighty - January 1, 2020, 8:07 am

Author keeps ignoring my messages, I will open a deal dispute if I don't get an answer as I lost $120 and I got no bitcoins

Crzy4MONEY - January 1, 2020, 10:51 pm

I am interested still 20$. Sleighty did you get a email stating Confirmation of your order being Placed and confirmed ?

I got no emails from the site. After paying I got a confirmation page on the site itself stating the purchase was successful, been almost 5 days and I did not get my bitcoins. I lost $120

SIM-3686963 - January 2, 2020, 4:50 am

Please check if it works in Lebanon. If it does I will buy.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley

Hello Juffar,

Both types work. I have paid with a Skrill virtual debit card on it in the past.

Grahf - January 27, 2020, 7:17 pm

What is the other method?

Nob - January 27, 2020, 7:40 pm

(Jan 27, 2020 08:17 PM)baynut Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) What is the other method?

A general purpose one, which is a no fail method aswell, but a little more complicated to put in place, and a little less profitable.

Darkie Smith - January 27, 2020, 9:30 pm

I am interested in this. However, I like to buy a lot of btc from all different areas (you see, I travel a lot..)

You say no verification, but say I had a card that didn't have any of that verified by VISA bullshit stuff, and maybe bought it like a city over from my house, or maybe a biiiiiit further... would it work?

Nob - January 29, 2020, 11:20 am

"Adding PayPal, Skrill and US support."

The website itself is accepting paypal?

Nob - April 6, 2020, 12:21 pm

I have added a new method that adds PayPal compatibility.
