I got scammed by this user.
Now he took a vacation ban. Lol
We did an deal $60 venmo for $63 paypal.
And we both agreed for it.

When i got his Venmo i send it to my client so he can send to this guy.
But since my client owed me some moneys he send to his venmo $187 instead of $60.

After i send the venmo.
Here is the screenshot

I told him :

And he told me

That my client send him $187, instead of $60 like we agreed. Is it okay if you hold it for a few hours until i find someone to exchange it all?

He said sounds good send me your paypal address
After i send him my paypal he paid me $63 paypal like we agreed.
After that i told him whats your discord?
And i could see that he took a vacation ban.

He run away with my moneys
P.S he paid me $63 paypal like we agreed but the rest of the moneys he got from my client of venmo he didnt.

Proof of the payment by his side: <https://ibb.co/m42qvHP>

He decided to keep the rest and take a vacation ban. Now he is not responding to my emails.

Last but no least, why he banned himself and took a vacation ban for 3 days?
Why he would take a vacation ban while i was talking with him and didnt even finished the deal with him.

I know it was a dumb move my client send him more moneys that we agreed. Cause i didnt knew we would take it this far. But he only told this guy that please hold the moneys for a few hours. He said okay and boom banned himself.

I dont know if staff will support me from this.
I will wait for this guy until his ban expires and tell me why he went away like that, and hopefully he will return me the moneys. I dont want any issues or trouble i just want the rest of the moneys he is holding for me. Thats all.
