Thread: Dhole Roommate refusing to switch rooms with me

Slim - November 1, 2019, 10:50 am

So, there are 3 of us in the apartment. I want the master, but I gave it to my buddy in the beginning.

We pay the same rent. I fought for that. Buddy #1 wanted to pay more rent because he was in the master. I said fuck that, that's silly.

Now his 6 months in the master bedroom are almost up. And he's refusing to give me the room because I "Don't come around often enough". He says it's not fair because I won't actually use it. Which I definitely will.

I wanna tell him "Listen fuc-ker, I could move into that room and use it for fucking storage if I wanted to. We both pay the same amount of rent and you've had your time."

What a fucking dip. What should I do?

Natas - November 1, 2019, 10:53 am

You should tell him

Fair is fair a deal is a deal.

If you wanted the room, why did you give it to him and fight against his wish to pay more rent only to bring it back up against him? I wouldn't want to move my furniture and go through the hassle of switching rooms with you

Natas - November 1, 2019, 10:55 am

Yeah I guess it really matters if you told him in 6 months your gonna switch or not.

If you got 3 rooms and there are 2 of ya you should get the other 2 rooms then.

You should move out and get your own place.

Well if you are never home, why are you being a cunt to your mate then? If he is there all day long, and you're out doing shit at the day why not just let him have it?

We agreed on it. I am around enough.

Right? We came to an agreement.

I could use that room for absolutely NOTHING and it's still mine. Wouldn't even be a problem if I was just randomly bringing it up. But we agreed. 6 months ago.

Have you considered a violent resolution? I know non violence is popular these days but I always found the opposite more conducive to problem solving.

Then when he gets pissed i'll say "But bro you weren't home like ALL DAY LONG. You weren't even USING the room!!1!"

Contact the landlord and they should be able to mediate over this. Dont try to resolve this yourself, since at the end of the day, the apartment is not your. Landlords usually help out in these scenarios.

I'd do something like this. If he's taking the piss then action has to be taken to counter it.

Change the lock, let him outside until he finally agrees to sleep in your current room.

Or find another place with new room mates.
