Thread: The Walking Dead

Lindros - November 4, 2019, 7:27 pm

There are probably numerous threads on the walking dead but I had something to say about it.

It is the dumbest yet most addicting show I have ever watched.

That is all.

Do you miss him?

I haven't gotten that far yet but no I actually hate Glen. He is a whiney little bitch, like most of the characters.

Oh man, you are seriously way way way behind... lol

I guess that was a spoiler ;)

I stopped watching after season 3 when it kept repeating itself, all I wanted was some backstory on the apocalypse and maybe showing them actively trying to find a cure but 7 seasons later they are still finding a safehouse, finding a villain, main character dies, safehouse is ruined and repeat.

Alpha is creepy. She just hides in the woods, staring at her enemies. ?

Smilies don't show up on here.

Natas - November 25, 2019, 8:06 pm

It was for me to for a long time but eventually I got tired of it are they still making it or did it end yet ?

Donald Trump Jr. - November 25, 2019, 8:11 pm

I stopped watching it half way through just seemed never ending, and the same plot every season...

Lindros - November 25, 2019, 8:50 pm

Yeah I agree with all of you, I'm starting to get bored of it too.

Did you finish it ?

I just want to know if rick dies

N - November 26, 2019, 5:37 am

I've stopped watching this shit since the 3rd season, seems like its on going plot that never ends or never changes.

In the last episode rick was featured in, he was severely injured and was taken away by a helicopter that no one knows who owns it.

The actual Actor that played rick has left the show officially meaning he won't be on any future episodes unless they filmed episodes in advance.

Nah, I didn't finish it, I'm only on like season 7 and I don't know if I want to finish it.

Damn ! That was the last episode like there not gonna make any more ?

I loved the first couple seasons then at some point I lost all interest.

Well they have made another season or two, but they are making them very short for whatever reason. The current one is only like 10 episodes or whatever. I believe they will still make them for now, just won't be any Rick unless they pre recorded another episode with him.

I liked reading the comics and the first few seasons of the show were good but it started getting really bad

I had no clue that they had walking dead comics. Interesting.

noroku64 - August 4, 2020, 11:33 pm

I was really addicted to this show but it started to not be as interesting after season 8. Where if I missed a show I didn't care. Sad that a good show made me feel that way.

aceWithPace - August 10, 2020, 10:42 am its so addicting i love it a lot!!! but it got worse unfortunately like a lot of other shows but at season 10 it's so good jecoylecroy - August 13, 2020, 2:04 am

I like walking dead there are some episodes in season 1 that is not aired. Why?

InceptionZer0 - August 24, 2020, 12:05 am

Fear the walking dead season one was pretty good
