NoirDotNews - November 7, 2019, 3:46 am

Hello everyone on HF

I'm Noir Dot News,

We build a safe decentralized place to converge all news for the pirates around:

- Crypto
- hacking
- Crime
- Darknet
- Services (coming soon)

It's a pleasure to be here and we are even looking for people who want to write for us.

Multiple positions for people who want to be journalists !

There is a position open for HF to write a weekly round up about Hacking Forum news.

What happened ? Who is selling new products ? Who scammed ?

I will open a thread here on HF with news so you can even check on HF !

I just paid I33t upgrade so i guess I'm part of the boat !

Check us out and happy hacking !

That's a pretty good idea, glad I found this! I'll definitely keep tabs on this. You could tag a small hidden wiki onto the side of this site (in the onion version), that would definitely drive more traffic to your site for sure
