Is this real? <https://gyazo.com/ca492bf83820b4cf32655c72da39e930>

Lindros - November 7, 2019, 12:01 pm

Is that police department in your area? I have no idea honestly. Looks sketch though.

Zero - November 7, 2019, 12:02 pm

This actually looks real wtf

Voxi - November 7, 2019, 12:12 pm

What have you done lol, looks legit to me.

Lights Outt - November 7, 2019, 12:15 pm

This looks 100% real, maybe you've done something you weren't supposed to ?

Thomas Anderson - November 7, 2019, 12:21 pm

Be careful not to drop your soap.

Bluffer - November 7, 2019, 12:26 pm

If that's your city mentioned than I'd consider it legitimate.

Veninu - November 7, 2019, 12:52 pm

It looks real lmao.

Also check from which email it was sent from, needs to be from @google.com, if that's the case then you're screwed. Xd

Silent Uprising - November 7, 2019, 12:57 pm

Fuck bro yes it looks real. What'd you do?

SIM-2327840 - November 7, 2019, 12:57 pm

Lmao looks legit, rip op ://

What did you do?

Cartel - November 7, 2019, 1:01 pm

Looks like you been in some trouble. Best sort it.

Horiizon - November 7, 2019, 1:04 pm

I did some googling of my own after seeing this thread and it seems that google does issue these emails to notify the account that legal process has began. Very unfortunate for OP. I hope he is not in too deep.

DNA - November 7, 2019, 1:08 pm

Seems legit.

Poor OP, let's hope you haven't been doing anything nefarious.

Goku - November 7, 2019, 1:09 pm

It's fake because google services use profile pictures

Also hover on the link, or right-click and copy the link to check to where it leads but of course don't go to link unless you want more spam mails in your inbox

DNA - November 7, 2019, 1:10 pm

(Nov 7, 2019 02:09 PM)Goku Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) It's fake because google services use profile pictures Depends on the sending address. If it's not @google.com it's most likely BS.

Why would an account that simply shoots emails off, have a profile picture?
Seems redundant

Slicky - November 7, 2019, 1:13 pm

Looks fake don't worry haha

Cooligan - November 7, 2019, 1:41 pm

Damn, looks real from everything in the image.

If it turns out to be, best of luck with everything OP.
Sometimes it's better to be honest if they already know something, keep that in mind.

Also, I fear for OP's safety. ?

Psilocybe - November 7, 2019, 1:49 pm

Damn seems pretty legit, but the only way to know for sure would be to send google an email asking if it's legitimate.

Lindros - November 7, 2019, 1:55 pm

Yep, I think you are fucked bud. Better start thinking of all the shit you have ever done wrong.

lucky. - November 7, 2019, 3:54 pm

Seems strange to be fake but I wouldn't count on it. Clean up whatever dirt you have and stay that way for a few months. Good luck if turns into a bigger case, or is real at all.

-itsJonny - November 7, 2019, 3:59 pm

Only thing you could do is email Google and ask them about that case number.
Sounds like you better throw the PC in the bottom of the sea.
