Thread: Ksi vs Logan Paul - Who is your money on and why?

Net - November 8, 2019, 2:15 am

So, the fight is tomorrow and I'm honestly considering having a little bit of fun and put some money on KSI. Not alot of money, maybe 50€ or something like that.

What do you think, who is going to win and why?

Think1st - November 8, 2019, 2:47 am

KSI forsure i don't fuck with logan i feel as if behind the camera's he's a dick. He showed his true colors when he was out recording on youtube suicide forest. where do you bet cause i might be down to Imfao

Game - November 8, 2019, 2:55 am

I just dropped £100, £50 & £25 bets on KSI which will return roughly £2300-£4000 depending on if he wins and which round.

Wish me luck.

Zero - November 8, 2019, 2:58 am

I dont remember who won the last one wasn't it logan paul ?

I remember watching the fight and it was pretty bad.

Like it really sucked.

Crimin4L - November 8, 2019, 3:13 am

I feel like Logan is going to beat KSI's a. The first one was in favor of KSI because Logan kicked his ass in the first 4 rounds, and they gave them a tie. He has only gotten better and stronger. So yea my money is on Logan :P

idabofficial - November 8, 2019, 4:32 am

Logan has been doing insane training. Its going to be a Logan wins hands down or his entire career would be over.

Ok he filmed a dead body? How many videos are with dead bodies? He didn't kill/hurt anyone. How is he a bad person? He did loads of good things like helping children with no families and stuff charity etc. Why aren't you talking about that? Don't tell me you never did a bad thing in your life. Stop acting like it's a huge tragedy. KSI sexually assaulted women and harasses people, why don't you talk about that? Oh because KSI fanboys will find any reasons to back him up.

But remember tomorrow KSI is losing

Logan is gonna win, and everyone who is rooting for KSI are people who are just fanboys, nobody using true logic over here.

He didn't just film it mate. He pointed and laughed at someone's suicide.

He didn't laugh at it, I saw the video myself I didn't see any "hahahah he is dead omg " all I saw that he was having a weird shocked face and was surprised and some people in such shocks even smile cause they don't know how to react.

Show me where he went to the dead body literally laughed at it being dead and making fun of it, and I will give you money.

This is the thing, I don't even root for any of them I barely even watch Logan Paul but what he did wasn't that awful and fans just try to exaggerate and make him seem worse than than hitler.

It was most likely removed from a majority of sites due to it containing a dead body and knowing him, he would have paid people out there to supress it, I'm sure if you looked hard enough. Best I can find is a video of directly after it where he is laughing...

How would you feel, looking down to see some douchetuber laughing at you killing yourself. I'd say the cünt is hexed after that Yeah thats a hard one for me some times people do express them selfs differently every time I ever been arrested I always went in smiling and laughing but deep down I was crying. I do think he handled it bad tho he should of been more respectful for the dead. He kinda seemed like he was proud and excited about it witch is not good. Thats nutts man much love to the family of the deceased that is not cool at all.

Then goes on to say things like

"I've seen things" etc etc as a direct war veteran joke at the situation.

If you can't see the disgusting reaction from that video, you need to clean your monitor.

There's a big difference to being shocked, and uploading the video.

I could say beyond reasonable doubt that you would not have the reception to livestream from that forest.

Quote:The forest is 12 miles square and it is difficult to get mobile reception so it is hard to contact those who enter.

Fact, he saw a body and showed it, fact, he laughed at the situation then proceeded to edit and upload that.

You can spin it however you want dude, but he laughed at someone's suicide and showed a body to millions of young impressionable viewers.

It was a mistake Imao, the mistake you make nobody care about you since nobody knows you, so if you do something wrong it won't matter, but since he did a mistake and a lot of people know him they'll overreact. Stop being so triggered . He didn't kill anyone, steal, hit anyone, he doesn't deserve this hate since he has done tones of good things which you haven't even done in your life Imao.

Lovely? - November 8, 2019, 8:21 am

Hate logan as much as the next person, but i don't know who's gonna win. Rooting for KSI obviously, but logan looks like he packs an evil punch this time around, and KSI has been playing games and making music and haven't dropped as much time as logan in training.

He knew what he was doing it when he did it, otherwise he wouldn't have uploaded it, that's not a mistake, that's stupidity because he knows he was in the limelight, he knows that any publicity is good publicity.

He deserves more than hate, he deserves to be prosecuted and have to pay restitution to the family.

You say I haven't done "tones" (it's tonnes btw) of good, yet you know nothing of my life and I could call a few people here to vouch to my good nature and that what I do in life does good. Natas is one of them, Krepto and Pawnhub as well.

U have a hard time understanding that his audience is 10-12 y/o's mostly. U think people are upset with him only cus he didn't respect the dead? How about what he showed to millions upon millions of little kids. And yes like jelly said, he was pulling jokes about it and acting dumb as fuck in a suicide forrest. It wasn't an accident, that specific forrest he went to visit he knew he could find dead people, why the fuck do you think he went there and not a regular forrest?

Nothing that happened in that video was an accident, he went in there knowing what would happen and what he would see, and recorded nonetheless. Stop protecting ur boifriend lmfao.

How much profit did you make off that?

Made around $220 profit, the odds were 2.2 for KSI.

Wish me luck.

I think he barely knows how to box but luckily he won

KSI did good, but he did not win in my opinion.

The ref took away 2 points, and also took away the knock down because Logan lightly hit him on the head while he was down. It should of been a warning or 1 point at max.
