Tips for some beginners

As a quote from Trident "No such thing as bad traffic" unless they 1, dont speak english, or 2, are blatant time wasters (P.S, Most people below the age of 20 will be time wasters, but not all the time.)

Tell tale signs of people being time wasters are people just flat out saying "I will give you the money later" or "ive been scammed before, give 10 pics first" You will pick up on these hints over time and it will become more and more obvious.

Have multiple sources of traffic, dont ever have 1 source, if that one dries up (for example kik friender) Then you are 100% fucked, so, get creative and find out different ways :)

Always be creative, and be realistic when speaking to potential customers, do what would seem unsuspecting to you, the more unsuspecting you are the more money you can get from said user.

Sugar daddies are key, they are hard to come by but KEEP THEM WHEN YOU SEE THEM.

Dont scam, unless 1 the guy is just a straight up dick, or 2, you can milk a stupid amount of money, and are desperate (But this does fuck you, and everyone else in the long run.)

Dont give up, you give up your fucking yourself, something isnt working?? Well guess what, try something new, you will always succeed if you are persistant enough, and that goes with everything in life.

In total; Smarts, realism, and most of all, persistence, is what will make you a good E-Whore.

Good luck :)

I recently got into ewhoring and I'm no expert, but can share one the most important advise that I got.

This is for people that just got into this to speed up their learning curve:

CHANGE YOUR STRATEGY OFTEN - If you are just starting ewhoring try as many different things as possible. If 1 pack doesnt bring you money, try another pack, If you cant get traffic from one site find another one etc. Try changing the way you talk with clients, prices, time of ewhoring, bio descriptions and so on. I tried ewhoring some time ago, made nothing for few days. Got into it again recently, changed almost everything every day and on 4th day made 150$.

TRY NEW THINGS, THATS THE BEST WAY TO LEARN.
