Thread: Got my wife a kitten

-itsJonny - November 13, 2019, 6:34 pm

My wife has been harassing me lately for a kitten, and with it being her birthday recently, I decided to give in and grant her wish.

He's a Maine Coon, and we're thinking about the name Storm.

I have two of those, they're adorable when they're young. They get bursts of energy at night though. Consider yourself awake come 4 am. They'll be jumping into walls, climbing up doors, jumping into trashcans etc. Doing cat stuff.

I'm not too worried about it if it's not a purebred maine coon, it's just what we were told lol ?
