Thread: In 72 hours I've made \$110 ewhoring

idabofficial - November 14, 2019, 8:12 am

I've only been ewhoring for 72 hours now.

I've already made $110 ($70 in Amazon and $40 cashapp)

No investments. Using snaptools and I only posted on a few discord servers and then just quick added people on Snapchat. Using a free pack from here.

I probably spent 30 hours total at it over those 72 hours, so I'm still under minimum wage, but it's just the beginning. I'm sure investing in a second device and a better pack would double that rate.

Feel free to ask me questions or give me additional pointers.

Thanks.

My question for you is, where can I spend $25 via debit card to gain HQ traffic on Snapchat?

Nice work! That's what I like to see, and while it's slow to begin with you will see things snowball and you'll be earning big. As for gaining traffic, you could pay for shoutouts from big accounts or for promotion on certain sites.

I realize shoutouts and advertising websites exist

I'm wondering which are legit and proven.

Very good question indeed.

And good luck, good earnings for first time ! Good job !

Congrats homie I know there is a chat app called Cams you can get some good traffic from there keep up the hard work.

Hey keep up the good work, I used to do it last year, but I had lots of free time back then. Didn't snaptools die? Do you still have a link to their discord/website?

urns - November 14, 2019, 2:07 pm

Interesting, keep it up!

Which snaptools are you using?

momoru - November 14, 2019, 10:55 pm

Nice work! I've been ewhoring too for 72 hours and i've made $145 in paypal. The first traffic method I used was [BRAND NAME REMOVED]. I created a fake account for my model and spend an extra $3 for [BRAND NAME REMOVED] plus (for the boost and location spoof) not sure if this was a good idea but I got my first 20-30 adds from here and I got banned instantly the next day. The next one that gave me my next 100+ add was meetme. I posted some explicit content there and got adds one after another. I got banned in there too and for some reason can't create accounts anymore. I also got an unexpected shoutout from another ewhore on snap. My next step is to purchase extra devices to maximize my earning I guess. Good luck to us!

Signing up as a new guy on a forum to brag about having gotten old men hard by pretending you're a girl for a little over $100.

How pathetic can one be?
