Thread: Hows your day?

Pain - November 20, 2019, 2:51 pm

Well currently left the casino and got raped by baccarat LITERALLY . So now I am down $2,000. Not really phased since I play with what I can afford to lose, but I am a bit bummed out due to the losses. How was your day ?

Not a bad day. Had some decent weather before a few weekend storms move in.
Browsed some online classes for a degree I'm looking at pursuing.
Also I didn't have to use my AK so today was a good day :)

My mind keeps wandering to drugs and it's really shitty. Other than that it's been a productive day. Very productive. But just gotta kill these cravings that have laid their eggs in my head...

How are chiropractic visits? Always been very interested in going but never actually gone.

No idea why people say chiropractors don't work. Even before my accident I've been going to get aligned my whole life pretty much.

50% of people I see walking down the street need to go to a chiropractor, but they've never been in their life so they usually don't go. I wouldn't wait any longer, you'll feel amazing if it's a good chiropractor.

Ass, had to work all day clean paint pretty much everything you can imagine. Time to hit the gym and i'm drained more than a rusted energizer battery.

Today was tolerable. Worked a long day, and now I'm relaxing before doing it all again tomorrow. :)

I wish I could go out and just casually lose 2,000$ and not care about it.
