Thread: How do you treat your Bytes?

Lorem Ipsum - November 25, 2019, 1:09 am

Hello there!

I'm saving up my Bytes from now on. Or at least I'll try my best not to spend or sell them this time. My goal is to save up to 1,000 Bytes and see where things go from there, which is a new challenge I put myself up to.

I was wondering, are there more members who feel the impulse sometimes to just gamble it all? Noticed that some of you are gambling it, others are exchanging it for BTC, which I did twice already. Feeling a bit bored at the moment so let me hear your thoughts on this.

No wrong answers - just a discussion thread in the Lounge section if it's allowed!
How do you treat your Bytes?

Deany - November 25, 2019, 1:12 am

Whenever I get 1k I just sell them lol

I used to do the same! Sold a total of 3k bytes - first time 2k and the last time 1k.
Now I regret doing it, because I like seeing the Bytes below my account which made me come up with this personal challenge.

Did you ever gambled them at Slots or whatever?

Pretty descent money right haha.

Too bad you didn't sell the Bytes. Anyway you made a lot of Bytes and lost them, so it's balanced. I must say gambling Slots with only 1-10 Bytes isn't worth it in my opinion, so I personally challenged myself to save them up to 1k.

Hi there my man! Thanks for the share. I sold 3k Bytes so far, but I rather see them in my account here below.

Perhaps when I reached the 10k I will save them or gamble them. Either way - a long road to go for me haha

$7 is not worth the effort of trading imho...

I mean, maybe 10k bytes is worth the trouble every now and then, but even then that's sweet fukc all these days.

I used to think $50 was a lot when I was 14

I used to think $500 was a lot when I was 18

Cooligan - December 1, 2019, 7:34 am

My suggestion is if you want to come up on Bytes and earn that 1000 quick, place bets in the Sportsbook.

I've already bet 63,000 Bytes in the Sportsbook and it hasn't even been 3 weeks I don't think. Never did I think I'd bet that much in such a short amount of time but I did, all because you just gotta take time with your picks and predictions and place them wisely.

Even if you lose, there's always tomorrow.

I hear what you're saying.

I'm just saying the Sportsbook isn't like Slots or Blackjack or Scratchcards, it's something you can actually somewhat safely and confidently use with your Bytes to earn more of them in a short time.

Just posting from where you're at now will take a decent while to get to 1000, unless you're also going for the Lounge Head award lol.

I know what Bytes are used for and I sold already 3k Bytes so far in 2 trades. I'm not saving up my Bytes without spending them, investing them or giving them away. So thanks, again, for the elaboration, yet I will not do any gambling which is basically Sportsbook.

If it's safe and easy to do, then I wonder why there isn't a group yet where people earn thousands of Bytes with Sportsbook?

It's all gambling in my eyes, with or without Bytes. Unless you have a fixed match, you can't be 100% sure. ?

Lol I'm not trying to convince you of doing anything, just giving you ideas and examples of methods on how you can triple your amount of Bytes in a short time. Because who doesn't love Bytes? Am I right ?ytes ?

Also there is technically a gambling group on HF, it's called Gamblers and is owned by Lavish Living.
