So dunno what you wanna do with this, maybe he has changed his ways.

Long story short. His email is registered to the skype "wootiee" (can provide full proof of email ownership)

Searching "wootiee" on HF gives us a number of results - and it's clearly him due to the use of "Harry Potter" names such as

Other usernames:

Shantorian

hinajaben

Horungensafton

Albus Percival Dumbledore

NallePauh

Will Grigg (however I think he hijacked this account after infecting him)

Also impersonating Cyber Seal

And let's just be clear, this isn't all of his previous accounts lmao.

One of my favorite comments by him

Quote: Well i have stopped scamming pepole on Steam since i realized that its worthless. I have scammed pepole for over 3k USD and everytime i scam someone it ends up with a fuggin ban (Not only 1 account i get banned on every account i have been online on) And yes i have been using VPN when i sign in to the victims steam account..

Lol will see if he does, there's no way he can deny it - I have way more than enough proof.

Yes indeed, I did PM him to get a comment but he replied:

"pfff wuut?"

From what I can see.

He infected a user Will Gregg over skype - took his bitcoin and his HF account.

Either that or he owned Will Gregg and just made false accusations against his own multi. Bit weird but maybe he wanted something.

Going to be real. I have heard so much bad shit about this user now. I genuinely think he should be removed from the site. I know he'll be back but atleast he'll have to start over and re-buy all his ranks.
