I purchased this method as it was left with some decent reviews and vouches in the beginning. Now, a month later from initially purchasing this method, I have yet to receive any profits through this "program". I paid $60 to receive 1 on 1 support, and I have yet to receive any form of support, a reply at the least. I have contacted LaFerrari numerous times, asking for support over discord and through PM's. When I got a reply on 11/23 , all he asked was for my username/email, of which I provided and didn't hear from him since. I am very disappointed as I've hit up a few people who have been seeing these "profits" since they purchased the method, of which one person has provided me "support"... Support being they got in contact with LaFerrari for me.

I'm tired of these games and I'd like my money back. I've given you multiple opportunities to reply to me, I've given you the benefit of the doubt but I feel let down.

He's had a total of 12 disputes, with 6 still being open. I wouldn't expect anything less.

Condasoftware - November 30, 2019, 7:30 pm

Sad that he doesn't want to live up to his obligations.

Yea, I regret paying with crypto as I can't open a dispute like Paypal. I have no idea how his account still isn't banned.

Did he ever settle this with you or is he just talking out of his ass? Let's keep this alive until Stanley says it's resolved. Bump. :)

Hello, you don't understand the circumstances of the deal. It will take time to be resolved so we can make sure he earns money.

I don't want him to resolve the dispute until the problem is 100% resolved or he gets a refund.

Maybe you should go focus on resolving your own open dispute.

Blogger - December 2, 2019, 3:58 pm

No, I do not "understand the circumstances of the deal" because I was not apart of the deal. This is why I am requesting a response from the OP, not the alleged scammer.

Ok, he will either mark the thread as resolved if we come to a resolution or if we don't I'm sure he will update that here.

Please be patient as it will take time.

He reached out to me, we're currently working on resolving this dispute. I'm going to leave the dispute open until I receive a profit, meaning it'll be open until I have money in my bank account/BTC wallet.

This user has scammed lots of members and she is still around here and trying to look honest. Nah. Full scammer. Ban this brain-dead scammer from here finally.

I replied to your PM for a refund 23 hours ago and I still haven't received a reply yet you replied to this thread 11 hours ago. You state in your thread that if I can't make anything off of it I can refund it. I purchased it more than a month ago and haven't gotten a single cent. I withdrew on the site 3 weeks ago on the 13/November, the site said it was going to take 3 days.

If you are genuinely legitimate I expect a refund as I have proven I can't make any money off of it after following all the instructions.

There is also a terms of service that you broke but I am still willing to come to a resolution.

Selling this method has put me at a big loss because of the users that exploited it and stole money from the company.

I had to cover this loss and pay the company back out of my own pocket (in the thousands of dollars)

I asked you for your client email because I am working with the company to make sure I don't refund or compensate those that stole from us.

Once I can confirm you haven't done anything malicious with your account I will get back to you with my answer.

I have 100% no problem refunding any legitimate customers that don't want support with the service, but like I said above, I need to confirm your acc is clean first. For those that did commit fraud with the method will not be receiving any compensation, I don't care if the dispute stays on my account, you do not deserve it.

With the OP, they confirmed his account is clean so I am letting him continue with the original method and he can report back here later.

Anyone else that I haven't gotten back to send me a PM here as my Discord is flooded and I will get back to you.

Are you kidding me? I dont have any account nowhere, because I was not able even to register to any site you freaking gave me and its proovable by our e-mail conversation where you just stopped helping me and not responding. I didnt pay by PayPal, but by BTC. I have sent you BTC address for refund, but you keep asking bullsh*t.

When you stop talking crap and actually pay us back?

Just open dispute against him and maybe we see soon this user is banned from here, as refund obviously not gonna happen.

I don't know how I broke any terms of service, I have followed all of your instructions exactly but regardless I don't know how long it will take you to confirm my account is clean. There is no way I did anything outside of what you instructed, if you PM me, I will genuinely just give you my account details and you can check everything for yourself.

packofmidgets - December 4, 2019, 9:12 am

Currently on vacation for the next month, I have checked the website and I am currently sitting on $20 profit. I haven't cashed anything out yet though, as I'm waiting to see more progress. I am checking this daily, so I will alert anybody of any upcoming events.

Nah, the site is fake. I have "cashed out" $90 pending from a month ago. It won't ever go through so your "profit" is all bull.
