I've seen a lot of stuff come from her, I've seen how she does things behind the scene, and understand how she operates. Given this insight into an 18 year old woman who averages 10k/mo ask me questions, and I'll try to give you an answer from what I've seen in relation to what shes done.

Does she work for an agency or for herself?

Why did you choose to become this?

She works for herself. Everything is independent.
