Hey guys wondering what you guys are running on here is what I am running on l@@@k

Rsynced - December 1, 2019, 3:54 pm

Hey that's really cool, why do you have a monitor in black&white?

Not really to bad tbh neither really had many problems with my eyes bro

Moon Clown - December 2, 2019, 7:54 am

No thanks I don't want to be embarrassed lol

Fugg - December 2, 2019, 9:52 am

What's the top left monitor for? And I am guessing those are cameras around your house or what?

I will be moving soon, and I have considered setting up a camera system like that with full surveillance around my house, probably going to post another thread here shortly.

Nate - December 2, 2019, 12:16 pm

Nice monitors and desk, I want to get one of those multi level desks but don't really know any good ones

Any recs?

no-avast! - December 2, 2019, 1:48 pm

That setup looks nice, I like the 2 screen setup. It's much better than mine.

owenhackz - December 11, 2019, 9:22 am spiral - December 11, 2019, 10:20 am

you really want to see my cluttered mess of a desk lol, right now I have my laptop, two monitors and macbook all on there lmao. need to clean up

[dot] - December 11, 2019, 11:48 am

Nice monitor OP.

Do you use dual VGA with 1 CPU only?

Sometimes I do link my laptop to monitor for dual screen.

Thanks buddy ! I like when my desk is clean, the only messy thing right now is the switch, but I'm waiting to receive my 3D printer and print a rack in order to put it inside (with an Aruba AP and a Fortigate firewall)

Vyrkfrir - December 11, 2019, 2:06 pm

I've been really tired for last few weeks, gonna have to clear this up and use my computer at some point. Still gotta factory reset.

I'm actually planning to add one more monitor because I daily deal with several VMs and I'm quite limited with "only" 3 monitors. By the way I would buy one more but bigger also to play at Cyberpunk 2077 (something 1440 or better like 2160p). Was interested by the Samsung 49" but so expensive Alittle Back Story; 7 months ago my girl left me, took the kid, i lost my job, and totaled my truck. Lost it all, anyway my homie moved in with me a month ago, and we started building our own little studio area/ set up so here we go! lol its not much but ive came along way from nothing just months ago. ?

My "desk" lol til i get a better one

And heres my pc up closer i know i was shaking when i took the photo lol

And Just behind me on the opposite wall is my homies

Heres his desk with stream deck, mixer, and the camera we use then his pc and mic on a boom arm (clearly nicer than my set up lol) we got the same case ?

also heres my build; <https://pcpartpicker.com/list/cynRJb>

Vyrkfrir - December 11, 2019, 5:04 pm

I enjoy seeing all the pc builds people of HF rep. Interesting to say the least. Good way to see how other members operate.

Prepper - December 11, 2019, 5:23 pm

Yall need to donate me some desks and stuff or something because mine is horrible.

No need for me to even show a picture its literally just a folding table, hp 24m FHD monitor and a wooden stand to my left where my hp slimline 290 rests.

You do know that smoking inside the house does no good to you, the furniture or the apartment it self. The stench is a big Clay Davis to get off from there.

Eh whatevs i'm just renting the place so I can move dope out of it and plus I don't even smell the cigarettes! Think the smell goes away after a while.

Yeah you get used to it. Bring in someone who doesn't smoke and ask them haha I know. I have had a few friends who smoked inside and it was horrible smell even though I do myself smoke as well, not inside the house though. Is it allowed to smoke inside where you live? ?
