Thread: E-whoring isn't dead

Aliasllias - December 2, 2019, 7:50 am

So these are some of my earnings of this week. Just one of the PayPal accounts I'm using. Besides this I accept all kind of gift cards and wasn't really feeling it to take screenshots of everything and look it all up.

Just some motivation for people that still E-whore or are thinking about starting with it.

Lorem Ipsum - December 3, 2019, 3:54 am

Could you please upload the images like this [img] linkhere.png [/img] so we don't have to copy/paste it haha.

Linux X - December 3, 2019, 3:56 am

Far away from dead. It will only go up with the situation the world is in at the moment.

Just out of curiosity, what do you mean by "the situation the world is in at the moment"?

Geass - December 4, 2019, 3:36 am

As long as there are horny idiots with money ewhoring will live for long, but it is not for my tastes to even try this.

Golden Kappa - December 4, 2019, 4:33 am

It isn't about people being idiots, it's more about human nature, people are horny and lonely, plus the state of technology enhances those conditions. Sex sells!

Root-Senpai - December 4, 2019, 4:38 am

Ewhoring will never ever die, it is impossible :)

I mean that more and more people getting isolated nowadays. Social media use going crazy, relationships get formed pretty harder than it was in the past. Men start to think woman are "snob bitches" and many dont even mind approaching them IRL.

So as a result, more will look up into internet for some interaction and company, thus e-whoring prosper! ?

If you won't scam them, I don't think so. If you're scamming people there might be a chance.

I never am able to completely utilise ewhoring. I get so fed up with no one actually wanting to buy anything and just chatting away.

-Sexy- - December 19, 2019, 5:08 am

Awesome results! I am hoping to do well in this field as well soon. I have done it before but stopped. Looking for a way to basically automate it.
